

Scouts Spend Week at Lake Arrowhead

Harbor City Scouts are back from spending one week at Cedar Camp, Lake Arrowhead. Hiking, horseback riding, swimming and crafts were part of the program.

The troop put out a small forest fire they discovered while camping overnight at Deep Creek.

Scoutmaster Monroe Mead, Kenneth Dalton, John Rowles, Richard Thurber and David Peters supervised the activities during the week.

Of the 29 Scouts attending this year's encampment there were seven sets of brothers, Eddie and Jimmy Alexander, Ronnie and Jerry Murakami, Doug and Larry Blum, Larry and Billy Barton, Mike and Lee Mason, Kenny and John Dalton, and Dan and Steven Graham.

Other Scouts attending were Walter Mead, Stephen Dumphy, George Griffin, Richard Thomas, Richard Rowles, Jose Valdez, Nicky Bartlett, Ford Edwards, John Klungreseter, Mike Thurber, Bob Wilson, James Donald, Michael Peters, Deen Whitely and Bob Escobar.

Families spending a week near Scouts camp at the Outpost were Mrs. David Peters, Richard Thurber, John Rowles and children.

Holiday Slate Announced by Gardena Temple

Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., Gardena, announces that in order to accommodate the growing membership, their families and friends interested in the conservative High Holidays, services will be held at the Imperial Theater, 3180 W. Imperial Highway, Inglewood.

Rabbi Henry E. Kraus, Ph.D. and Cantor Harold Stein, who will lead the Temple Choir, will conduct Rosh Hashanah services Wednesday evening, Sept. 21, beginning at 8 p.m. and Thursday and Friday, Sept. 22 and 23, at 9 a.m.

Yom Kippur, Day of Atonement, starts with Kol Nidre, Friday evening, Sept. 30, 7 p.m., and Saturday morning, October 1, at 9 a.m. Yizkor services begin at 11:30 a.m. Saturday morning.

Tickets are on sale at the Temple every evening between 7 and 9 p.m. For further information call Religious Chairman Lew Bergowitz, FA 1-0670.
