Localites Leave Saturday For Fun Tour of Europe

A 23-day holiday in Europe is to be enjoyed by a group of National Supply people and their friends, who will leave the Los Angeles International Airport by jet on Saturday morning, Sept. 10 for New York City, where they will meet other tour members and change to one of KLM Royal Dutch Airlines' new DC-8's for Sunday morning arrival in Amsterdam, Holland. They will go on by private motor coach through Germany, Switzerland, Italy, France and England.

Highlights of the tour include a steamer trip up the Rhine River; a day in the university city of old Heidelberg, Germany; the famed "Passion Play" performed in Oberrommargau once every ten years; gondola-ing in Venice, Italy; an open air opera performance in Rome, and the Follies Bergere in Paris. A stop also will be made at the noted gambling Casino in Monte Carlo.

There will be twenty-two persons in the party. Leaving by plane from the Torrance area will be Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wagner, Mrs. Jeffie Rueter, Mrs. Ida Demoree, and Mrs. Blanche Nagy. Driving across country and leaving on Sept. 3 to join the tour in New York City were Mrs. Thomas A. Bowker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Everett, and Mrs. Lucille Mullane. Also joining the tour in New York will be Mr. Wright's aunt, Miss Elizabeth Wright, who was a Torrance visitor several months ago.

Others in the tour party are Los Angeles friends of the mentioned persons. The four who are motoring to New York will tour the New England states on their return from Europe.

Both Herman Wagner and Mark Wright are long time employees of National Supply. Wagner, a liaison man on special projects for both engineer-

Company Party

Brady-Engelhart Nuptials Read at Christian Church

First Christian Church of Torrance was the scene last Saturday evening at 7 o'clock of the marriage of Miss Leta Inez Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil E. Brady, 1880 Plaza Del Amo and Robert Joseph Engelhart. Mrs. Ruth Engelhart of Chicago is the mother of the bridegroom who is serving with the United States Air Force stationed at George Air Force Base in California. Mrs. Engelhart came to Torrance to attend her son's marriage.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She designed her wedding dress which was made of embroidered organdy over silk crepe. Fashioned with a scoop neckline there was a ruffle of the embroidered organdy which formed a collar. The bouffant skirt was also of the rose embroidered organdy. She wore white crepe gloves that formed a point over the hand. A Juliet cap held her fingertip illusion veil and her bouquet was of white carnations encircling an orchid.

Mrs. Howard Brady served as the matron of honor. She was gowned in blue crepe and carried white carnations. Mrs. Robert Gow served as the bride's other attendant. She also wore blue crepe and carried a white carnation cascade.

Howard Brady stood as best man and ushers were Jack Stassin and Lawrence Goff. Rev. O'Dell Myers officiated at the marriage service. Mrs. Eleanor Haynes, at the organ, played a background of nuptial music and the wedding marches. She accompanied Fred Lincoln, Jr., who sang "Wedding Prayer."

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Sharon Thompson was in charge of the guest book. After a honeymoon in Las Vegas, the couple will be at home in Torrance.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High in 1956, El Camino college in 1958 and is now attending Long Beach State College. Her husband received his education in Chicago.
