PTA The Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Kenneth Edwins

Hamilton Elementary

"Building for a Better Tomorrow" was the theme announced for the coming year at a recent meeting of the Hamilton Executive Board by Mrs. Arthur Stilwell, program chairman. The program for the year will include "Building for Community Support" in October; "Building Multi-grade Understanding" in November; "Building to Uplift our Spirit" in December; "Building for Home Safety" in January; "Building Upon Our Heritage" in February; "Building With Dad's Help" in April; and "Building Inspection" for May.

Mrs. W. H. Bayliff, president, announced that the School Carnival will be held Friday, October 28. Hamilton Executive Board also feted its school faculty members and personnel at a brunch in the school cafeteria September 13. Board members serving on this committee included Mesdames W. H. Bayliff, president; Steven Litis and William Foster, hospitality chairmen; and Lester Hash, A. J. Stilwell, Robert Hodgeman, Clifford Brink, Charles Griffen, Todd McCartney, M. R. Stiles, Joe Marmolejo, Jack Cleveland, Ralph Swain, William Rose, Robert Siemann, and W. Y. Wells.

Madrona Elementary

Madrona PTA will sponsor a Fall Carnival on October 1, from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. There will be two clown contests, one for 1-8 year olds at 11 a.m. and another for the 8-10 year olds at 4 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for the most original, most realistic, and "wackiest. There will also be a midway and many fine food booths. Questions regarding the tax override will be answered at Madrona's first PTA meeting, to be held on October 8th in the school cafeteria. Teachers and PTA board members will participate in a panel which will discuss the tax override.

South High

Mrs. Ivan McElroy, dance chairman, announces that South High PTA presented their annual "Howdy Hop" on September 16 in the school cafeteria. The purpose of the dance was to welcome incoming freshmen and new students in the area. This is the only free dance held during the school year and is sponsored annually by the PTA.

Newton Elementary

At a recent executive board meeting Mrs. James Hurst was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. J. D. Haddad, fourth vice president. Mrs. David Tanner, program chairman, announces that the first meeting of the Newton PTA will be held October 20, in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Carl Johnson announces that Newton will sponsor a Carnival and Spaghetti Dinner in April and two bottle drives during the school year. The members of the executive board passed a resolution to try to secure a crossing guard for the intersection of Newton and Calle Mayor. The annual teachers' luncheon was held September 12, at the home of Mrs. Richard Carlton, 152 Via LaCireula, Hollywood Riviera.

Riviera Elementary

"Today's Children - Tomorrow's Leaders" was the theme chosen by the Riviera executive Board for the coming year, announces Mrs. Leo Bereda, president. The first PTA meeting will be held September 28, in the school cafeteria. Mrs.

Bereta also announces a Fall Carnival, to be held during Halloween Week. Members of the executive board were hostesses at a recent luau which honored faculty members and the school staff.

Edison Elementary

Edison school will become "Storybook Land" on September 30, when the PTA presents its third annual carnival. Complete spaghetti dinners will be served in addition to hot dog and dessert booths. Mrs. Thomas Seier, carnival chairman, announces that there will be an advance sale of tickets at bargain prices of 12 for $1.00, available at the school on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday preceding carnival time. Edison's first PTA meeting of the year will be held on October 5, in the school cafeteria, and will feature a speaker from the Torrance Unified School District, who will discuss the tax override issue which comes before the voters on October 11.

Hillside Elementary

Hillside executive board honored the Hillside faculty and staff with a buffet luncheon, recently, and special guests included Mrs. Wallace Evertz, Mrs. Roy Purche, Mr. Frank Jones and Mr. Ernest Thom, all previous faculty members. Following the luncheon, Mrs. Francis Davidson, president, introduced board members, and Mr. John Strom, principal, introduced staff members. Decorations following an autumn theme were planned by Mrs. Macedo, art chairman.

North High

Mrs. Harvey Johnson, president, announces that the first meeting of the year will be held October 4th, in the school gymnasium. The topic for the evening will be "Preparing for the Future" and will be a back-to-school night for all parents. A tour of the classrooms will be made, following the same school-day schedule as the students. Mr. Sam Waldrup, assistant Superintendent of Business for the Torrance Unified School District, will speak on the subject of "Yes for Kids on October 11th," covering the override tax. This will be followed by a question and answer period. Hostess for the evening will be the North High Executive Board members.

Arlington Elementary

Miniature flags of different countries were used as place settings for the "All Nations" luncheon given by the Arlington PTA Executive Board for the Arlington faculty and staff recently. Mr. Henry Behrens, principal, introduced the following new teachers: Miss Virginia Ball, Mrs. Lois Brown, Mrs. Judith Haueter, Mrs. Mary LaCamera, Miss Barbara Norwood and Miss Barbara Wine-man.
