

St. Andrew's Parish to Note Holy Day Rites

On Thursday, Sept. 29, the Holy Day of St. Michael and All Angels will be observed by the celebration of Holy Communion at 6:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Study-prayer Group, with Intercession for the Sick, will be held at 10:15 a.m. A service of Holy Baptism will be held the same evening at 6:30 p.m.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew will hold their monthly Morning Prayer Fellowship at 6:30 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 1. Members are requested to be present if at all possible. Sunday, Oct. 2 is Sacrament Sunday at St. Andrew's, and celebrations of Holy Communion will be held at all three services, 7:30, 9:15, and 11 a.m.

THE REGULAR monthly meeting of the Sunday School Teachers Assn. is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 4, at 8 p.m.

in the Education Hall. New officers, elected at the last meeting, will preside for the first time. The new slate of officers is as follows: President, Jack Cleveland; Vice President, Mrs. Lee Wright; Secretary, Mrs. Betty Gately, and Treasurer, Mrs. Terry Mitoma, Director of Religious Education at St. Andrew's is Mrs. Jessica Jelf.

The newly formed Rector's Study Group for Men held its first meeting last week, and the large turnout shows that they are off to a good start. Much discussion and planning have gone into the organization and purposes of this group.

THE MEN ARE starting with a thorough study of The Acts of the Apostles, and besides discussion of the subject undertaken, Bible and text-book reading, definite assignments are given to members, in rotation, on the Biblical, historic, and economic background of the times. Messrs. Charles Ray, James O. Cayton, and Roy McKinney, will report on their

Special Day At South Bay Church Set

The South Bay Church of God announces that they will observe special Rally Day services with an "Easter in October" emphasis complete assignments at the October meeting. Every second meeting will have a featured speaker on some aspect of the course.

There is still time for men of the Parish to enroll in this course, and they may do so by calling the Rector, the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, at the church.

with Easter music and a Dedication of Babies in the 11 a.m. service.

Robert Jonas will sing the number "On a Rugged Hill." The Chancel Choir, under the direction of Mrs. LaWanda White will sing the James P. Davies arrangement of "O Day of Rest and Gladness," and Rev. Clifford L. Tierney will preach on the subject: "Thine Is The Kingdom."

The Sunday School is striving to break the highest Easter Sunday attendance of 674 on Sunday and the 76 teachers, officers, and workers have pledged themselves to making this day one long to be remembered by the South Bay Church of God and the local community.

The Choirs will observe their annual Benediction Night in the Sunday evening service. The three choirs participating in the opening service of the new choir year will present a program of song and dedication.

Rev. Tierney announces that all peoples are welcome to these special services.

Sunday School Registration Contest Opens

"Vote for Sunday School" is the theme for the Sunday School Rally being held at the Lomita Missionary Church, 2034 Lomita Blvd.

The school has been divided into two sections, the Navigators, headed by Vernon Rose, and the Crusaders, headed by Mrs. Susie Dunn, and each is putting forth an earnest effort to elect their party, according to the Rev. Earl B. Leonard, pastor.

Next Sunday has been designated registration day, and the contest between the two groups will continue through Nov. 13.

The Men's Missionary Fellowship will have its first fall meeting Saturday evening at the church at 7:30. The Rev. Earl Lewis, director for the Sudan Interior Mission, will speak and show films on the work in Africa.

The Rev. Mr. Lewis also will speak Sunday morning at 11 a.m., and again Sunday evening at 7. He will show another film at the evening services, the Rev. Mr. Leonard reported.

Dr. Katz to Conduct Four Talks Here

"The Psychology of Personal Problems" will be the topic of a four lecture series by Dr. Barney Katz, noted psychologist and author, sponsored by Torrance Evening High School and the Torrance Council, PTA.

The lectures will be from 7:30 to 9:30 on Mondays, Oct. 3, 10, 17, and 24, in Torrance High School's auditorium. This will be the fourth straight year that Dr. Katz has appeared here by popular demand.

A private clinical and child psychologist, Dr. Katz holds a doctor's degree from SC, where he taught for four years. He was a psychologist at the Santa Ana Army Air Base during the war. He is the author of seven books on this and related subjects. He is a member of the American Psychological Assn.

Tickets for the lectures may be obtained at the Adult Education office, 2200 W. Carson St. They also will be available through PTAs and at the door.

The Oct. 3 lecture will be on "To Worry or Not to Worry." Succeeding talks will be on "The Guilt Complex," "The Inferiority Complex," and "Who is Neurotic?"

Craft Class Registration Opened Here

Registration for craft classes designed for both children and adults now are being taken at the Torrance Recreation Department, FA 8-4108.

The classes are slated to begin next month at the Arts and Crafts Center, 22780 Lupine Dr., according to Center Director Erika Muhl.

Saturday sessions for youngsters are slated to begin Oct. 8. Crafts classes will meet at 9 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., while a puppetry session is slated for 2:30 p.m. Fee for each four-week class is $1.50.

For adults, there will be a mosaics class convening at 7:30 p.m. on Mondays starting Oct. 10 and 9:30 a.m. Fridays starting Oct. 7. A craft class (Christmas gifts) will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays, beginning Oct. 5. The charge for each four-week class is $1, plus the cost of materials.
