

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

They Read Our Paper First

Dear Ann Landers: I have a very touchy problem and need to consult an outsider who does not know the people involved.

We live in an apartment building which has high-class tenants, generally speaking. The neighbors who live down the hall are the free-loading type. They are always borrowing something.

We have the newspaper delivered to our door every morning. These neighbors get up before we do. They take our paper and read it then put it back. I wouldn't mind except this morning someone spilled coffee on your column. What do you suggest? — DONE IN

Dear Done: I admire your neighbors' taste in newspapers but I can't say much for their integrity. There isn't much you can do unless you catch them flat-footed. Sacrifice a couple of hours sleep to accomplish it. Open the front door just in time to say "Good morning, great paper isn't it? I'd be happy to send a subscription salesman to see you."

Dear Ann Landers: Whenever something in your column that appeals to my husband like advise to "cold wives" he throws it at me and says "read THAT!" Now I wish you'd print something for me to throw at him for a change.

My husband's idea of dinner is to sit in dead silence and shovel in the food. Nobody is supposed to say a word.

Our daughter is nine years old and she's always bursting with news of what happened during the day. The moment she opens her mouth he says "Shut up and eat. No talking at the table." If this isn't a good way to make a nervous parent out of a child I miss my guess.

He says that's the way he grew up and that's the way it ought to be. Please comment. — JUST DISGUSTED

Dear Just: This is fine — for Trappist monks. But for families' dinner time is the ideal time to exchange ideas and enjoy one another's company.

If you feel this is making your daughter nervous have dinner with her first and encourage her to talk about the day's happenings. Let Sourpuss eat by himself. Since he thinks mealtime is strictly for shoveling in the food, he won't mind shoveling alone.

Dear Ann Landers: This is not for you, it's for "Blessedly Single" the career gal who crowded about her complete contentment. She didn't want marriage. Her big problem seemed to be over jealous friends who insist on fixing her up with men. "Everybody is trying to get me married off!" she complained.

Well, I, too, am single but I don't see anything "blessed" about it. I'm lonesome, unfulfilled and I want companionship. I'd give a lot to change my lot of friends for hers! The problem in my social circle never go out of their way to introduce me to an eligible male even though they know I'm pining for the sight of one.

Please tell me where these considerate people live — the ones who actually go out of their way to arrange a date for a single girl. I think I'd consider a move. — SOLO-MENTE

Dear Solo: Sorry, I never give out information about people who write. I'm printing your letter, however, as a reminder to married couples that the singletons sometimes need a friendly assist.

Does almost everyone have a good one but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Copyright, 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Dinner Guests

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Setzer, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lorenc were dinner guests of Mrs. Lucille Britt of Hollydale.

GREENTHUMBERS ADMIRE ENTRIES... Admiring a few of the many entries in their recent flower show are left to right, Mmes. John Fitzgerald, a member, Louis Wilhelm, the show chairman, and Joseph A. Leger, Greenthumbers president.

Greenthumbers Garden Club Holds Annual Show and Tea

The Greenthumbers Garden Club Flower Show and Tea, held recently at the home of Mrs. John Klug, was a very lovely affair with over one hundred entries. Winners were:

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS
First awards were given to Mrs. Louis Wilhelm for her entries in 2-inch and 5-inch miniatures, her arrangement of carnations, her entry featuring wood and succulents, and her foliage arrangement.

Mrs. Vincent Patten was awarded first for her chrysanthemum entry, Mrs. Joseph Leger, for her dried material entry, and Mrs. George Horton for her vegetable tray entry.

Second awards were given to Mrs. Louis R. Wilhelm for her patio entry for berries, to Mrs. James Hailey for her 2-inch miniature and her dried material entry, to Mrs. Agnes Bellew for her entry of roses, Mrs. Vincent Patten for her 5-inch miniature, and to Mrs. George Horton for her driftwood arrangement.

Third awards were given to Mrs. Elmer Junge for her fuschia arrangement, to Mrs. William Junge for her gladiolus arrangement, to Mrs. Vincent Patten her 2-inch miniature, to Mrs. Harry Allen for her 5-inch miniature, to Mrs. Joseph Leger for her driftwood arrangement, and to Mrs. James Buchanan for her dried arrangement and her miscellaneous arrangement.

Honorable mention awards were also received by Mrs. Joseph Leger, Mrs. Vincent Patten, Mrs. James Buchanan, Mrs. Harry Allen and Mrs. Paul Kollack.

DISH GARDENS
First award was received by Mrs. Elmer Junge, Mrs. James Buchanan, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, and Mr. and Mrs. William Junge. Second awards were received by Mrs. Elmer Junge, Mrs. William Junge, Mrs. Joseph Leger. Third awards were received by Mr. William Junge, Mrs. Elmer Junge, and Mrs. James Buchanan.

POTTED PLANTS
First awards were received by Mr. and Mrs. John Klug, Mrs. Vincent Patton, and Mr. Joseph Leger. Second awards were received by Mrs. Louis R. Wilhelm, and Mr. and Mrs. John Klug. Third awards were received by Mrs. John Fitzgerald and Mrs. George Horton.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION
Wayne Wilhelm won the trophy, with Jeannie Allen, Mary Ann Kollack, and John Kollack providing stiff competition.

Special awards were given to John Klug for an outstanding cactus plant, to Mrs. Klug for her beautiful Rosary plant, and to Mrs. Louis R. Wilhelm for her unusual 3-inch miniature floral arrangement.

Children's Special Award ribbon was given to Wayne Wilhelm for his exceptional succulent and rock arrangement.

Mrs. Louis R. Wilhelm won the Sweepstakes Trophy for floral arrangements and Mrs. Klug won the Sweepstakes Trophy for horticultural entries.

Dianas Plan Card Party

The Redondo Beach Dianas, Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership will hostess a luncheon and card party, Saturday, October 8, at 12:30 p.m. at the Redondo Beach Women's clubhouse, 400 South Broadway, Redondo Beach.

Luncheon fare will include crunchy chicken salad, rolls, chocolate nut torte and coffee or tea. Proceeds of the event will be donated to many worthy South Bay Philanthropic Organizations, stated Mrs. Milo Brunskill, President. For reservations phone Mrs. Forrest Johnson.

Participating in the afternoons entertainment will be coordinators, Mrs. A. I. Lukes, Mrs. Ernest Butt and Mrs. Curt Richardson. Mrs. Lee Hammond, President, Redondo Beach Woman's Club and Miss Marjorie Crandall, Evening Division President will also be in attendance.

Polio Clinic

The Serra Mother's Club and the March of Dimes will hold their second of a series of polio clinics on Oct. 13, 8:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Serra High School 14830 South Van Ness, Gardena.

The goal is to immunize every person in Los Angeles County. A series of three shots followed by a yearly booster is necessary for proper immunization.

Judy Wolf's Engagement To Samuel Thomsen Told

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf, 21804 Halldale, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy, to Samuel Thomsen of Santa Barbara. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomsen of Hawthorne.

Judy announced her engagement to her Chi Omega sorority sisters Monday evening by passing tiny little candy dolls of all nations. Later in the evening the engagement was revealed at a farewell dinner in honor of Mr. Thomsen, who is presently employed as Director of the University Religious Conference, in Santa Barbara. Just recently he was accepted as an officer in the Foreign Service and must report to Washington D. C. Oct. 8.

The dinner was given by friends and the University religious conference. Dr. Reynolds, Dean of Students gave a talk and the farewell address was given by Dr. Samuel Gould, University Chancellor.

TORRANCE HERALD

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 6, 1960

9

Crescendo Evening Planned For Las Vecinas Benefit

Fun for Philanthropy is the theme of Las Vecinas Woman's Club intention this year, announced Mrs. Marvin Bandoli, ways and means chairman. A night of dinner, dancing and entertainment on the Sunset Strip will be fun for members and guests, with the proceeds going into the philanthropy fund to further the club's good deeds.

The Crescendo, 8572 Sunset Blvd. is the place; Thursday evening Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. is the time and date; and dining with friends, dancing to the music of the Crescendo orchestra, and entertainment, by the well known comedian Bob Newhart, the program.

Bob Newhart has appeared on radio and television shows including "Playboy Penthouse", performing for the members of the Chicago Chapter of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, and at the annual "Emmy Awards." He also has a long playing record newly released. He has a fresh and original approach to comic art.

Las Vecinas invite guests to share with them in the fun and fund event. Mrs. Bandoli or Mrs. A. J. O'Keefe may be contacted for reservations, the deadline for which is Oct. 7 as reservations are limited.

Rummage Sale
Temple Menorah Sisterhood will have its fall rummage sale Thursday and Friday, Oct. 13 and 14 starting at 9 a.m. at 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Harry Rosen, chairman, announces an extensive variety of goods will be offered. Assisting her will be Mmes. Phil Weinstein, David Morrison, and Harry Mandel.

Emblem Club "Gold Rush Days" Set For Oct. 8

"Gold Rush Days" is the theme of the benefit to be sponsored by the Gardena Emblem Club No. 257 next Saturday evening, Oct. 8 at the BPOElks hall, 1735 W. 162nd St., Gardena.

Under the able chairmanship of "Diamond Lil" Ziegler, an evening of entertainment and fun has been planned so something will be going on at all times.

Scenes of the old west will be recreated and painted by the club's artist, Mrs. Chet Palmer. To add to the atmosphere, games of roulette, chuck-a-luck, black jack, bingo, and keno will be played... with sham money bought at the door or at the old frontier bank.

Refreshments and foods of various sorts will also require sham money to be purchased. Co-chairmen for these snacks are Mrs. Tony Francia and Mrs. Jack Colella.

The wagon train with a whole troupe of entertainers is scheduled to arrive at 8:30 p.m. Such well known acts as the "Merry Chords", the Downey Elks quartet; little Pam Human, the five year old darling from Harbor City, singing "Buffalo Girls"; and piano renditions of frontier favorites by Mrs. Edwin Wilson of Torrance, are but a few of the headliner acts.

No entertainment troupe is complete without a line of can can girls, so Mmes, William Ketchum, Marvin Knapp, George Hoose, and William D. Brown will present their version of the old time dance. Their high hatted partners will be Mmes. James H. Allgood, Erwin Popp, Thomas Monahan, and Edwin Swanson.

One of the highlights of the evening's entertainment will

THIS ONE OR THAT ONE? . . . Hats are ever an interesting item in Milady's wardrobe so they will be shown along with other new modes for fall and winter at the fashion luncheon being held at the Elks Hall in Redondo Beach next Tuesday noon, Oct. 11. Proceeds from this benefit sponsored by the Torrance Memorial Hospital Women's Auxiliary will go into the "Pinkie" fund to bring joy to an estimated 750 pediatric patients.

Lomita Eastern Star

The Lomita Eastern Star No. 591 will meet Oct. 7 at the Masonic Temple at 8:30 p.m. for a pot luck dinner to celebrate the Chapter's birthday.

A stated meeting will follow at 8 p.m. with the election of officers. Emma Lewis is chairman for the evening.

Harbor View Aux.

Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Assoc. Unit 217, Harbor View will hold its next regular meeting tonight at Ula-brand Hall, 1125 S. Gaffey St., San Pedro at 8 p.m. Mary Davis, president will preside. All members are urged to attend.

OL' WEST DANCERS . . . Entertainment in the ol' west was never without a can can line and the Gardena Emblem Club's "Gold Rush Days" is no exception. Pictured here are two of their group with their high hatted partners. Left to right, Mmes. Carmen Haney, James Allgood, Erwin Popp, and Thomas Monahan, practicing for Saturday evening's performance at the BPOE Hall, 1735 W. 162nd St.

MISS JUDY WOLF . . . Passes Candy