

Candidates of Area to Visit Voters League

The League of Women Voters of the Palos Verdes Peninsula will present a candidates' meeting Tuesday Oct. 25, at 8 p.m. at Malaga Cove School Cafeteria, 385 Via Almar, Palos Verdes Estates. Mrs. Allen Curtis of Torrance, Voter Service chairman, announces that this is part of the policy of the non-partisan League of Women Voters to present all candidates for an office for voters to hear and to question.

The following candidates have accepted the League's invitation and will appear. For Representative from the 17th Congressional District: Cecil King, incumbent, and Tom Coffee. For Assemblyman from the 48th Assembly District, Charles Sohner. For Assemblyman from the 68th Assembly District, Richard Glasier.

Mrs. Richard Blakeley, president of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Peninsula, will moderate. Each candidate will make a statement and there will be questions from the audience. All interested voters are invited to attend.

Temple Menorah Calls Meeting About Building

Temple Menorah of the South Bay will hold a general meeting of the temple membership on Wednesday, Oct. 26, at the temple building, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach at 8:30 p.m.

This meeting is being held to obtain approval by the membership of a building fund plan in which each family will be asked to share according to ability toward the cost of building the new temple. George Hayes, contractor, and a representative of Kenneth Lind, architect, will be present at the meeting to answer questions put to them by the membership.

A social hour and refreshments will follow the meeting. Hostesses will be Mesdames George Lewison, Gene Alford, Kurt Bachheimer, and Jerome Scharfman.

Picnic, Special Class Slated by Order of Moose

A picnic for lodge members and their families Sunday, and a special class enrollment ceremony in honor of the recipients of the Fellowship Degree to be held in November, was announced this week by Dan Hutchinson, governor of the Torrance Moose lodge.

Site of the Sunday picnic, according to George Clay and Mrs. Walter Hoffman, co-chairmen of a special committee, will be Area No. 4 in Peck's park, San Pedro. The usual picnic races and refreshments for the children will be provided by the lodge and chapter.

The enrollment class is being held in observance of Fellowship Degree Honor week throughout the Moose domain. Tribute will be paid during Sunday, Nov. 13, ceremony to those fraternal leaders who have been extended the Fellowship Degree in recognition of their service to the philanthropic projects of their lodge and fraternity.

A meeting of the South Central District of the California Moose Assn. will be held in the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., immediately following the initiation program.

Members of the Torrance Moose lodge who hold the Fellowship Degrees are: Dan Desmond, George W. Clay, Stanley Heimann, Joseph Platt, James H. Johnston, James A. Evans, Dan Hutchinson and James Stiles.

Richard Vink of Manhattan Beach, state vice president, will direct the district meeting.
