The movie, "Scouting Beyond," is being given at its first public showing, sponsors of the program report. The film covers the development and testing of the X-15; the Thunderbirds (AF acrobatic team) in action; rockets and space frontiers, and the historic trip of the atomic powered submarine, the Nautilus.

Moose Lodge Sets Prizes For Costume

Prizes for the best costumes will be awarded during the annual Halloween dance to be presented by the Torrance lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., on Saturday evening, Oct. 29th. Henry Kolter, entertainment committee chairman, announced this week.

Music for the Moose social event will be furnished by the Three J's, featuring Joe Radulovich.

Savings Firm Gets Investor At the Source

The number of savers at Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Association took an historic leap forward Monday, jumping from 116,500 to 116,501.

The marked increase was attributed to the arrival in the financial world of tiny David Kauffman, who was born Monday at 2:51 a.m. at St. John's Hospital, Santa Monica, to Harvey Kauffman, director of public relations for Glendale Federal, and his wife, the former Janet Elaine Cooper.

Both parents and David's sister, Deborah Ann, 17 months, are doing fine, as is David, who weighed 7 pound 7 ounces.

"You're never too young to learn thrift habits," said his public relations-minded daddy about David's new savings account. "And David just loves that 4 1/2%."
