

Tartars Injury Riddled for 'Gundo'

ECC Tests Winless Harbor

El Camino's battered, tattered, and shell shocked Warriors may get a chance to see how the other half lives tomorrow night when they tackle winless rival Harbor JC.

After getting bombed by unbeaten Santa Monica last week, 58-24, the highest point total against an El Camino team in the school's history, the Warriors may take their revenge out on the Metro Conference doormat tomorrow night.

The 8 p.m. tilt at Harbor will pit the conference's worst defensive unit (El Camino) against the lowest scoring offense (Harbor).

The Seahawks have scored just 39 points in four games. El Camino has been touched, er, slammed, for 147 points in as many outings.

But the Warriors' backfield, spearheaded by quarterback Ronnie Veres, slotback James Valmore and fullback Dave Anderson is a two touchdown favorite to finally catch fire and explode — in Harbor's face.

Veres tossed for four TDs against Santa Monica last week.

However, the nation's biggest junior college game of the week will unfold Saturday night at Long Beach's Veterans Memorial Stadium before an expected record crowd.

There, unbeaten Long Beach City College and likewise unbeaten Santa Monica CC will lock horns in a battle which may lead to the Metro championship.

The winner may also find an open door to the national JC championship as well as a bid to the Jr. Rose Bowl. Santa Monica has jinxed the Vikings for eight straight years.

Long Beach Coach Jim Strangeland says SMCC "will be the best team we've played all years."

Last week the Vikes upset previously unbeaten Bakersfield 27-6 in a shocker. But Santa Monica has speed, size, strength and a great line, according to Strangeland.

A royal showdown between the conference's two top fullbacks is expected, with Santa Monica's George Hughley and Long Beach's Lonzon Irvin of Long Beach among the top scorers in the circuit. Hughley has tallied 42 points, and Irvin 50.

Amateur Baseball Team Being Formed in Torrance

A winter baseball team which will compete in the Los Angeles Municipal League is being formed in Torrance under the direction of manager Jay Williams.

Workouts and tryouts for aspiring non-professional ballplayers will continue to be held Sundays from 1 to 4 p.m. at Torrance Park until the first non-league game, Nov. 27.

Williams said the team is co-sponsored by AiResearch and the Torrance Recreation Department. Home games will be played at Torrance Park.

The all-star baseball aggregation will play a home and away schedule in the Muni League beginning Dec. 4. The club succeeds the old Torrance Bluebirds as the only amateur outfit in the city.

Williams said that he plans to carry a squad of from 16-20 players and that interested ball players could tryout beginning Sunday at 1 p.m.

Williams can be reached by phone at the AiResearch plant, OR 0-1311, extension 606.

Chargers, Vikings Seek Rebound from Losses

Torrance's two Pop Warner boys' tackle football teams will attempt to bounce back from a second straight double defeat this week end.

After losing to the La Mirada Squires 13-0 last Sunday, Coach Dandoy's Vikings (65-90 points) host San Bernardino at Walteria Park at 1 p.m. Sunday in a non-conference game.

Meanwhile, the midget division Chargers (75-110 points) will trek across town to meet the Redondo Rascals at 3 p.m. at Olson Field.

The Chargers dropped a 28-12 decision to the Gardena Bolts in their last venture, although Torrance's Terry Tiedeman scored a touchdown on a 28 yard return of an interception and passed 25 yards to Fred Schwanbeck for a second TD.

However, Gardena had built up a 21-0 halftime cushion to coast into the win.

Mira Costa Favored by 3 Over Tattered South Hi

South High's taped-up Spartans hope to end their winless slide against tailspinning Mira Costa tomorrow night in Manhattan Beach but injuries to several key players present a gloomy forecast for Coach David Tollerfson.

Latest to get bitten by that pesky injury-bug was ace pass-catching end Mike Andrews, who will probably see limited action due to a tricky ankle (ligaments).

South is a three-point underdog against Micohi in the schools' first grid meeting. The Spartans are still looking for their first Bay League varsity sport victory.

Mira Costa, traditionally will run out of its late Red Sanders' UCLA-type single wing. Mustang Coach Don Cogswell was a former Bruin and his '60 edition has rung up a 3-3 record. The Manhattan Beachers have dropped their last two, however, last week to Hawthorne, 6-0.

South was dumped by Hawthorne in the league-opener, 13-0.

With Phil Fish still out with a damaged kidney, South's offensive backfield will probably see seniors Joe Austin at quarterback and Bob Wehrhan at left half, and junior Harvey Seigel at fullback. The other halfback post will go to either Warren Cross, Rick DeSpain or Dan Appel.

Friday Night

Gunter, Morley Continue Hot 'Cycle Duel'

The motorcycle racing season roars into its final two weeks tomorrow night at Ascot Stadium, Gardena, with two championships hanging in the air.

Al Gunter and Stu Morley are waging a neck and neck race for the title in the expert division.

GUNTER SO FAR has won 11 trophy dashes and nine main events compared to five each for Morley.

Torrance Favored in Homecoming But McLean, Irvine 'Doubtful'

It isn't unusual for coaches to not like their teams to be favored, but Torrance High mentors Irv Kasten and Clyde Christiansen are downright afraid of it — at least for tomorrow night's Pioneer League hook-up with upset minded El Segundo.

South Novice Harriers Win Mt. SAC Meet

The first big upset of the prep cross-country season was turned in Saturday by South High's novice (fresh-soph) team which ran to the Mt. San Antonio Invitational large school championship.

Five South distance men finished in the top 16 in the field of about 140 runners at the 1.8 mile Mt. San Antonio College course.

John Naumann, Bruce Hamilton, and Lance French placed 7th, 8th and 9th while Mike Holland was 14th and Bill Farrell 16th to pace the Spartans, coached by Dick Scully.

South finished a comfortable 22 points ahead of second place Azusa, 54 to 76. La Habra was third with 82, and perennial power Mira Costa fourth with 167.

Micohi has won the championship cup the last three years in a row.

Lakers Set Special Student Rates for Games

The Los Angeles Lakers, Southern California's newest major league team, has announced a special student's rate for all the Laker home games this season.

All junior and senior high school and college students in the Los Angeles area may buy regular $2 reserved seats for $1 by presenting their student body cards where tickets are sold.

This special student price will also be available at all ticket windows on day of game.

Basketball Practice

Basketballs were literally brought out of mothballs this week as official practice opened in hundreds of Southern California (CIF) high schools

Riding a four game winning strings, the Tartars are 13-point choices to make it five in a row and move a step closer to their first football championship since 1946.

But, in three past meetings with Clyde Dougherty's Eagles, Torrance has managed only an equal 1-1 record. And the last time the two foes collided on Torrance turf (1958), El Segundo rode off with a 19-13 win.

MAKING MATTERS worse yet, Torrance's three backfield workhorses, halfbacks Jerry McLean (sprained ankle), Mike Irvine (torn tendons), and Mike Tracy (knee), are doubtful at least as starters.

So the Tartars are real upset bait this week.

One of the biggest and possibly happiest homecoming crowds in recent Torrance history is expected to turn out to cheer the Tartars and Queen Barbara Campbell in their bid to continue their unbeaten Pioneer League record.

If comparative records are any indication (they usually aren't) Torrance should win in a walk.

The Tartars sport a 4-1 season record, and have only come close to losing since dropping a 6-0 season-opener to Redondo.

On their way, the locals have bypassed Inglewood 19-6, Lawndale 38-7, Beverly Hills 47-6, and Aviation in an upset, 21-6.

EL SEGUNDO has a relatively poor 2-3 record, but is coming off a 34-19 win over Lennox.

The big man to watch in the Eagles' unpredictable offense is halfback Bob Brodie, who's making a strong bid for an all-league berth.

The Eagles are prone to line up in any number of offensive patterns, and this should be a real challenge to Torrance's stingy defense.

The Tartar coaching staff has received five scouting reports on 'Gundo, and five different accounts of the Eagles' offense.

However, Torrance's defensive alignment has allowed just one touchdown a game, while the offense is averaging 25 points a tilt.

ONE NEW face in the starting eleven will be that of tackle Joel Redmon (5-10, 170), who replaces ineligible John Carlson (220).

Redmon and cohort John Keith (167) must be the two smallest starting tackles in the league.

Last year Torrance and El Segundo played to a 6-6 tie in the beach city.

In '58 the Eagles scored their 19-13 win, revenging a 13-12 loss to Torrance in the final 13 seconds of the 1957 contest.

North Tackles Hawthorne In Bay Crucial Tomorrow

With three games to go, nobody's discounting North High's chance of sneaking in for at least a share of the Bay League's championship.

Least of all Saxon grid boss Bob Shoup.

"If we can get by Hawthorne, and Redondo beats Morningside, we'll be in pretty fair shape," Shoup said as he pointed out a possible Bay entanglement.

IF ALL this results tomorrow night, then a subsequent North victory over Redondo coupled with a Hawthorne win over so far unbeaten Morningside could make things rosy-pink for the northerners. And North, despite its 2-1-1 record, is rated a one point favorite to get the ball rolling against the Cougars (3-1) tomorrow night at Saxon Stadium.

"We're in our best physical shape of the season, including the first game," Shoup said as he sent his enthusiastic squad through a crisp scrimmage session Tuesday.

Halfback Roy Dohner, quarterback Carey Hubert, and fullback Rick Jacobs are all well and fine after minor injuries and illnesses and will be in the starting backfield.

Carey has completed 45 of 60 tosses in six season games for a sensational .750 percentage.

While North will be in top physical condition, Hawthorne will be minus its ace running back, Jim Keale, who scored both Cougar touchdowns in a league-opening 13-0 win over South.

Jim has had a leg in a cast for two weeks and will miss the rest of the season.

NORTH UNVEILED a new pass target last week in junior end Dan Claxton, who "looked great," in the words of Coach Shoup. Dan scored the first TD of his prep career Friday and added two conversions.

He should take some of the pressure off ace end Pat Lininger in the next three really "big" tilts.

Indy Veterans Compete in USAC Sprint Cars at Ascot

Don Branson, Indianapolis race driver from Champaign, Ill., will drive the Bob Estes 220 in the USAC sprint car program Saturday night at Ascot Stadium, Gardena.

Branson, 40-year old veteran of the go-fast game finished fourth in the 500-mile classic last Memorial Day, was 1959 midwestern sprint car champion, and finished a close second to A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., for the 1960 eastern championship.

Definite entry of Branson means at least four Indy starters for the return of USAC sprint racing to Southern California for the first time since 1952. Previously entered were Jim Hurtubise of Lennox, fastest qualifier in Indy history at a scorching 149.056 m.p.h. average speed; Foyt of Houston and Wayne Weiler of Phoenix, Ariz.

Big local favorites, of course, are Hurtubise and Parnell Jones of Torrance, 1960 midwestern sprint car champion, who both drive stock block Chevies against the Offy field.

Saturday night's program consists of seven races, headliner by a 40-lap main event. There is also a 3-lap trophy dash for the four fastest qualifiers, three 6-car heat races, a 15-lap semi-main event, plus qualifying. First three finishers from each heat, plus the first five finishers in the semi-main make up the 14-car feature.

Racing starts at 8:30, qualifying at 7.
