

Stroll Through Candy Cane Lane

Traditional Yule Parlor Parade Bazaar Set For Friday, Saturday

An established tradition of the holiday season, the Yule Parlor Parade sponsored by the Woman's Guild of the Neighborhood Church of Palos Verdes will be held Dec. 2 and 3. Theme for the elaborate homes tour and tea this year will be "Home for the Holidays." Four distinguished Peninsula homes, opened for this fourth annual parade, will be decorated in keeping with the architectural mood of the house and for the special hospitality and homecoming at Christmas time.

The Peter Parfitt home, 2900 Via La Selva, will be decorated for the traditional Christmas dinner. The Frank Fiedlinger residence at 3625 Palos Verdes Drive N. will be the setting for the Christmas Open House and a typical Christmas Eve will predominate at the Mediterranean home of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith, 1532 Espinosa Circle.

A Christmas Breakfast scene will enhance the provincial elegance of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith, 2844 Palos Verdes Dr. W.

The former salon of the Italian Villa, now converted into the Neighborhood church, will be festive with choirs of angels for the Christmas Tea.

Guests making the tour will stroll through Candy Cane Lane where they will view Christmas wares ideal for Christmas giving.

Included in this array of colorful items will be original handmade Christmas ornaments, gay holiday aprons, candles for the season, fruit cakes, cookies and bread. A new feature this year will be the Stocking Stuffer Corner. Bazaar chairmen are Mmes. Robert Monosmith, H. C. Portman, Jr., Robert Burgin, Eugene Cox, Harry Morgan and John Comeau.

Mrs. Lloyd Cook is general chairman of the 1960 Yule Parlor Parade. Other chairmen include Mmes. Lewis White, homes coordinator; George Armstrong, tickets; Franklin A. Steinko, invitations; Earl Burris, placement; E. S. Breneman and W. Holmes Smith, display; Douglas Dowell, parlor decorations; Clelan Graham, music; A. B. Bailey and Franklin Steinko, publicity.

Mrs. Mary B. Stoughton is communications coordinator. The tea at the church is in charge of Mmes. Paul Peterson, Donald E. Hannum and Wilfred Lohman.

Proceeds from this year's Parlor Parade and tea will be used to refurbish the church.

Dinner Guests

Mrs. Bessie Myers and Mrs. Alma Smith were Thanksgiving Day dinner guests at the home of Judge and Mrs. John Shidler in Hollywood Riviera.

Miller-Bruns Vows Read In Candlelight Ceremony

South Bay Church of God was the scene of a beautiful double ring wedding ceremony at 2 o'clock on Saturday Oct. 22 uniting Miss Arla Jill Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, 17628 Fonthill Ave. and Jimmy William Bruns, son of Mrs. Elaine Bruns of Torrance.

Rev. Clifford L. Tierney stood before a flower banked altar to officiate at the marriage.

As the 200 wedding guests assembled, the organist played a background of nuptial music and accompanied Billy Lundy Williams who sang "O Promise Me."

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white silk organza with lace appliques studded with pearls and crystal drops. The fitted bodice had a high neckline, fashioned with a mandarin collar, long tapered sleeves and a full skirt which fell into a chapel train. The English silk illusion veil was held in place by a pearl crown. The bride carried a white Bible topped with white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Jeri Ann Scarborough was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Elaine Busch was the bridesmaid. They wore coral mist chiffon gowns and carried coral and white gardenia bouquets.

Marla Jo Finch in coral mist chiffon and carrying a basket of white flowers was the flower girl.

Robert Creason stood as best man and ushers were Allen Miller, Larry White and Ted Armstrong.

A reception followed the marriage. Serving were Mrs. Rita Hockenberry and Misses Sandra Busch, Donna Gibbish and Deloris Simpson. Mrs. Sharon Cuppucci registered the

A luncheon is planned for later in the year for all those having successfully made their donors.

Anyone wishing to join the group may call Mrs. Mae Ronne. For transportation call Mrs. Albert Carmon, Mrs. Paul Glassman or Mrs. Harvey Abramson.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"Japanese Pen Pal, Boy or Girl?"

Dear Ann Landers: This may sound nutty, but I DO need your help. I am 13 years old and have been carrying on correspondence with a Japanese pen-pal whose name is Masako Obara. The trouble is I don't know whether Masako is a boy or a girl.

My mother says it would be very impolite to ask "Are you a boy or a girl?" I have written Masako three letters and have received three letters in return. What shall I do now?—C.E.

Dear C.E.: If after three letters from Masako you are unable to tell if you're corresponding with a boy or a girl—skip it because it doesn't make any difference.

Dear Ann Landers: Any gal who thinks women have equal rights in this country is just kidding herself. If a man's trousers are too tight he's just put on weight. If a woman's skirt is too tight she's trying to be sexy. If a man stands on a corner, he's getting fresh air. If a woman does it she's looking to be picked up. If a man has one drink too many, "it slipped up on him"—if a woman gets a little bit tight she's a lush. If hubby has a night out with the boys, he's entitled to it. If his wife has a night out with the girls, she's up to no good and ought to be at home with her family.

A male who has a minor automobile accident can tell you exactly what went wrong mechanically with the car. A female who bangs a fender or loses a headlight is a lousy driver.

If a man philanders and is caught at it, he's misunderstood at home and is probably married to a cold fish. A woman who has an affair is a tramp, an unfit mother and should be tossed out on her posterior. If the kids turn out good they are a chip off the old block. If they turn out bad, their mother did a rotten job because after all, the mother spends most of her time with the kids and it's her influence that is felt.—BIG LAUGH.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm proud of my husband but whenever he has to say a few words in public I want to fade into the wallpaper. He's a poor speaker. (Continued on Page 12)

Cordell-Wright Nuptials Read in Baptist Service

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Mildred Jane Cordell, 816 Sartori Ave. and Roger E. Wright, 2117 Torrance Blvd. in a late afternoon ceremony on Saturday Nov. 19 at the Palos Verdes First Baptist Church. The Rev. Gerald W. Squyres officiated at the double ring ceremony. The church altar was decorated with white flowers and white candles, which were lighted by Ted Cordell and Mark Hurley.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eursell Cordell of Lancaster, came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white silk organza and Alencon lace appliques studded with seed pearls. The fitted torso had a scalloped scoop neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. A crown of Chantilly lace encircled by pearls held the English illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and bouvardia.

Club Hostess

Mrs. H. R. Richards entertained her club last Monday at her home, 1605 Beech Ave.

The hostess served a brunch, followed by the bridge games. Club members are Mmes. E. L. Snodgrass, Lillian Dunhouse, R. E. Moffitt, Alma Smith, and William Dekin. Mrs. R. W. McNeil was a substitute.

Mrs. Alma Smith will be the club's next hostess.

Miss Fran Parman was the maid of honor, wearing pale pink chiffon over white taffeta. She carried white and pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Dora Johnson and Mrs. Gail Carter. They were gowned in American beauty taffeta sheath dresses with chiffon sleeves. White carnations and pink roses formed their bouquets.

Patricia Tims, in pink organza and lace, was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Mark Kent.

Earl W. Hurley stood as best man and ushers were Dr. Richard Venderland, Charles F. (Continued on Page 12)

Charlotte Gross Becomes Bride of George Hoffman

In a mid-afternoon ceremony at Nativity Catholic Church on Saturday, Nov. 12, Miss Charlotte Anne Gross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gross, 5025 Jacques St., Torrance, exchanged her wedding vows with George R. Hoffman. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hoffman, 1308 Elm St., Torrance.

Mrs. Mary Butterfield, at the organ, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Connie Smith who sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

Mr. Gross escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle detailed with a scalloped neckline studded with mother of pearl sequins. The gown had long pointed sleeves. A wide border of the lace was around the bottom of the skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried white orchids and carnations.

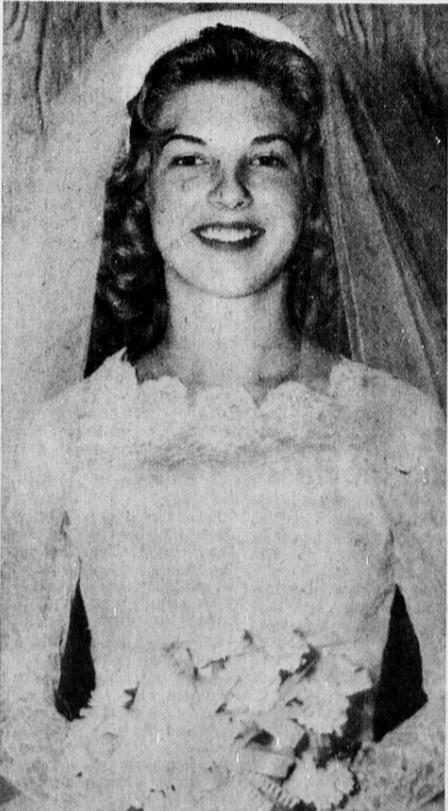

Miss Diane Gross was her sister's maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Joan Grogan and Mrs. Robert Kelton. All of the attendants were gowned in emerald green taffeta and each carried a cascade bouquet of mint green carnations. John B. Hoffman, Jr. performed the duties of best man and ushers were John Gross and Fred Saari, Jr. The Rev. Thomas Glynn conducted the vow exchange.

A reception was held in the Knights of Columbus hall in Redondo. Miss Mary Gross was in charge of the guest book.

The couple spent a two weeks honeymoon in Nebraska and are now at home in Torrance.

The bride was graduated from South High school in 1960. Her husband was graduated from Torrance High in 1958 and is now employed by a Gardena electronics firm.
