UNION GOOD FRIDAY RITES SET IN LOMITA

Annual Good Friday services sponsored by the Lomita-Harbor City Ministers' Council will be conducted at the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church in Lomita. The traditional services will begin at 12 noon and continue until 3 p.m. The services will be conducted on a 24-minute interval, and feature the Seven Last Words of Jesus.

Participating in the program will be the pastors of seven Lomita-Harbor City churches, each of them taking as his text, one of the words spoken by Christ on the Cross.

The ministers participating will include Earl Leonard, Lomita Missionary Church; Wayne Killingstad, Western Avenue Baptist Church; Leo Duncan, Calvary Assembly of God; Eldon Durham, St. Mark's Presbyterian; Robert A. Wells, Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church; D. S. Cahill, Harbor Tabernacle Full Gospel; and Joel Rivers, Lomita Christian Church.

The public is being invited to attend all or any part of the three-hour service. Persons able to attend only part of the service may come and go during one of the six intermissions.

Roosevelt Memorial Park Scene Of Easter Sunrise Rites Sunday

Several thousand people visit Carl Lucht, pastor of the Gar-

Roosevelt Memorial Park, 18255 S. Vermont Avenue, each Easter morning at 5:45 to attend the Sunrise Service and enjoy the unique music of the world famous outdoor pipe organ.

This Easter the organ will accompany a large choral group made up of combined choirs from several Centinela area churches led by Mrs. Ruth White. The program will be conducted by the Foursquare Churches of the Centinela Division. The Boy Scouts of America will conduct the call to worship.

Greetings will be given by the Divisional Superintendent, Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor of the Torrance Church. The Rev. C. Bumstead, Lawndale Church will lead the congregation in song and Rev. J. Haygood will present the invocation.

The Rev. George Johnson, pastor of the Prairie Avenue Church, will give the Scripture Reading and the Easter Message will be presented by Rev.

Carl Lucht, pastor of the Gar- dena Church. The service will close with the benediction which Rev. C. O. Jecoat, pastor of the Inglewood Church, will give.

An outdoor organ concert of devotional music may be enjoyed in the afternoon between 2 and 4 p.m. with Eleanor Hanes at the Console.

Dynamic Living Group Plans Session Tonight

The Dynamic Living group will hold its next meeting in the Torrance Young Woman's Christian Assn. building on Carson St. at Del Amo tonight with the meeting being called to order at 8 o'clock by the president, Merritt Myers.

Rev. James Pottenger, a noted speaker on the subject of Religious Science, will begin a series of lectures that will carry through April and May.

All interested persons are invited to attend these meetings.
