Kindergarten Registration

Pre-registration for prospective kindergartners at Yukon and Waleria Schools will be held this week and next. At Waleria, parents are asked to come to the school any day next week, bringing birth certificate or other proof of birth. Children need not come, since appointments will be made for later physical exams. Children who will be five before Dec. 2 may enter kindergarten next fall.

Research and Curriculum TEAC Topics

How research affects school curriculum and planning will be the topic of discussion at the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee meeting next Monday noon at the Torrance Masonic Hall, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. Moderating the discussion will be Dr. Louis Kaplan, assistant superintendent in charge of special services and research. Discussing the various phases of research will be Principals Dale Harter North High; Myri Rupel, Calle Mayor; and William Zecher, Seaside; Teacher Robert Miller, Hillside; Guidance Consultant Robert
