New Bowling Center Will Open April 8

When the Gable House Bowl opens its doors April 8, Torrance will not only have another bowling center, but will have the only fully equipped Brunswick house in the area, according to Jerry Hommel, operating manager of the 40-lane Gable House, located at 22501 Hawthorne Ave. next to Palley's.

Hommel, who has been with the Jefferson Bowl Center in Culver City for four years, said the new center will have a quiet opening April 8 with a ing and entertainment to also be featured. A fully equipped nursery will be available to mothers and free instruction will be given area residents who wish to learn, or improve, their game.

More than 800 bowlers have signed up for matches at the new center, Hommel said, and added that all types of leagues, including a housewives' league, are scheduled for play. The Gable House telephone number is FR 8-2265 for reservations and further information.

SPEBSQSA Show Set

The Palos Verdes Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc. (SPEBSQSA), will present an All-American parade of quartets in the Torrance High School auditorium Saturday night beginning at 8. Tickets will be on sale at the box office for $1.50.

grand opening set for May 8. In conjunction with the alleys will be a coffee shop, buffet lounge, dining room and two cocktail lounges with dance.
