

pull-on-girdles, for example, to lift the top line and thus mold the waist. Brassieres have been lengthened, to anchor below rather than just at the waist-line.

type bra-lettes along with the long, gently shaped styles.

To avoid any illusion of top heaviness through the widened sleeve with deep underarm cut, brassieres are designed to shape a high and rounded line, with no hint of accentuation.

Foundation For Figure

Perfect figuring in new fashions is assisted by foundations that take thought of spring's marked waistlines and fuller sleeves, as well as the bared backs and wide décolletage in

Most important are foundations that offer control for the waist area. These include long line brassieres, bra-lettes, corselets and high-top girdles.

REFERENCES CHECKED . . . Mrs. Don Wilson, reference librarian for Region III, checks growing reference stacks at Torrance Public Library as she draws attention to National Library Week now in progress. Special emphasis during the past year has been given to building up collections on economics and business to supplement the library's technical volumes. (Herald Photo)

AND POLITICS, TOO . . . Want to know something about Senator Kennedy who swept the Wisconsin voting Tuesday? The Torrance Public Library has the latest book about the presidential hopeful, as well as books about most of the other men who have been referred to as serious candidates for the nation's top post. Here Mrs. Don Wilson displays a few of the current copies.

JOHN A. McNEIL Wins Scholastic Honor

St. Mary's Students on Honor Roll

Two Marianist Brothers of Torrance, both graduates of Junipero Serra High School in Gardena, have been named to the Honor Rolls at St. Mary's College where they are sophomores, it was reported here this week.

Brother John A. McNeil, S.M., whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. McNeil reside at 3009 Carson St., and Brother J. James Orsini, S.M., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Orsini, 2301 Grand Summit Rd., along with Brother Richard Meisel, M.M., of Gardena, were honored for their scholastic achievements.

Marianist priests and Brothers of the Society of Mary, Province of the Pacific, teach at high schools in California, Hawaii, and Japan, and the Society of Mary will open a Foundation in Korea in August.

The Marianist Society will open a new Scholasticate at Chaminade Colleg in Honolulu this fall where the Brothers will complete their junior and senior years.

Brother McNeil, a science major, is the son of Mrs. McNeil and the late John A. Hedberg.
