Torrance DeMolay Chapter Seats Phil Warde as Master Councillor

Wearing new robes donated by the Mothers' Circle and a set of officers' jewels donated in memory of the late Harold W. Johnson, the Torrance Chapter, Order of DeMolay, held a public installation of officers last week at the Torrance Masonic Temple before a capacity crowd which represented every phase of the Masonic family from every neighboring community. Robert Fulford, Worshipful Master of Torrance Lodge 447, F&AM, official sponsors of the Torrance DeMolay chapter, welcomed the guests, and The Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, delivered the invocation.

RICHARD MEYERS, chaplain of the chapter and installing officer, gave the traditional Mothers' Flower Degree, and installed the new officers. Elective officers included Phil Warde, master councillor; Robert Pulliam, senior councillor; Charles Johnson, junior councillor; and Mike Sargent, treasurer.

Preceptors in order included Jim Pulliam, Wayne Hughes, Richard Fisher, Steward Bucklew, Kyle Jones, Steve Simpson, and Bruce Norman.

PRECEPTORS trophy was presented by James P. Knippel, L. chevalier, assistant supervisor of District No. 51, Southern District, Order of DeMolay. Richard Meyers received the award for outstanding ritual work. The award is given in memory of Mrs. R. C. School. Robert E. Halliwell II, junior past master councillor, presented the "Hats Off" award, voted by members of the chapter, to Dr. Stanley H. Yanase, scribe

KNIPPEL announced that the chapter had won the DeMolay degree ritual competition for the second straight year and is now competing with a bout 135 chapters in Southern California for the league championship. A reception and dance followed the formal ceremonies.

Parks Planning Full Program During Vacation

Seasonal sports, games, crafts and programs are planned next week at six parks and nine school playgrounds, according to the Torrance Recreation Dept.

Thousands of youngsters, on spring vacation from schools are expected to participate in special events slated at the El Nido, El Retiro, McMaster, Torrance, Sea-Aire and Walteria parks and the playgrounds of the Anza, Flavian, Hamilton, Hillside, Meadowpark, Parkway, Riviera, Sepulveda and Wood Schools.

The parks will maintain their usual vacation hours while the school areas will be open from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Easter egg hunts are planned April 16 at El Prado, El Nido, El Retiro, McMaster, Sea-Aire, Torrance and Walteria Parks. Egg dyeing sessions will be conducted at many of these areas on Friday.
