MRS. WILLIAM KIMPEL . . . New President (Stanford Photo)

Osteopathic Auxiliary Installs New Officers

Mrs. William Kimpel of Torrance was installed Tuesday evening as president of the Auxiliary to the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Society. More than 35 members witnessed the impressive ceremony held at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. Dr. Rachel Jenkins of Rolling Hills was the installing officer.

Mrs. Kimpel, a charter member, has been active with the auxiliary since its founding in 1955. Although she claims Tennessee as her native state, her school years were spent in Bowling Green, Ohio. After graduation from high school, she went to Atlanta, Ga., to attend a business college. It was there that she met her future husband. The couple were married in Atlanta in 1942 while Dr. Kimpel was serving with the United States Navy.

They came to California immediately and in 1944 Dr. Kimpel was sent overseas. Mrs. Kimpel worked at the Air Force Base in Santa Ana and attended business school at night.

Upon Dr. Kimpel's return, they moved to Los Angeles where Mrs. Kimpel worked at Douglas Aircraft while Dr. Kimpel attended the Los Angeles College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons.

The Kimpels have two sons, Mike, 12, and Robert, 10.

When Mrs. Kimpel isn't busy with auxiliary work she enjoys gardening and playing the organ.

Others taking office for the coming year were Dr. Joanne Boyce of Redondo, president-elect; Mrs. Frederick Strange, Torrance, first vice president; Mrs. Dean Brown, Gardena, recording secretary; Mrs. Samuel Johnson, Torrance, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. George Wall, San Pedro, treasurer.

JOANNE CARR . . . Honored

Miss Carr Will Attend Girls State

Miss Joanne Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Carr, 1544 Marcellina, has been elected to attend the American Legion Auxiliary 17th annual Girls State session at the Davis Campus at U. of C. June 20-28. Miss Carr is sponsored by the Auxiliary to the Bert S. Crossland Unit 170.

The local student will learn and participate in every phase of city, county and state government. This high honor is bestowed on a girl of the junior class who is most outstanding in qualities of leadership, character, citizenship, scholastic standing and the ability to cooperate with others.

Joanne has been active in campus affairs at Torrance High school. She is a member of the California Scholarship Society and is now president of the junior class. She has been active on the First Baptist baseball team, which won the California state championship. She holds membership in Tartar Ladies and the Tri-Y, a YWCA group, serving as historian and reporter.

Miss Carr is also an accomplished pianist.

Woman's Day Scheduled

Woman's Day at the WALTERIA Methodist Church will be Sunday, May 8. Speaking from the pulpit for both services will be Mrs. Frank Hild, spiritual life secretary of the Los Angeles District. Other women from the executive board will participate in the service.
