

Hahn Campaign Leaders Named

Dr. Olaf Tegner, chairman of the education department of Pepperdine College, this week was named chairman of the Southwest Los Angeles Committee to Re-Elect Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Named to assist Professor Tegner as women's division chairman was Mrs. Eula Jordan, 7706 South La Salle St., past president of the Southside Democratic Club.

The pair, both longtime residents of the southwest, will coordinate campaign activities for the supervisor, who seeks his third term as representative of Los Angeles County's second district.

In a joint statement, Dr. Tegner and Mrs. Jordan said:

"SUPERVISOR HAHN has proved time and time again that conscientious and honest representation results in concrete improvements and steady progress for the people of Los Angeles County.

"Supervisor Hahn has continually received the endorsement of his constituents on the basis of his record of service—and his record has grown with the area he represents.

"We and thousands of other residents are proud to work for his re-election and insure honest government in Los Angeles County," concluded Mrs. Jordan and Professor Tegner, who resides at 13502 South New Hampshire, Los Angeles.
