FRENCH GLAMOR . . . When the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary stages its "Fete Parisienne" Saturday evening at the Gerald Revell home in Rolling Hills, murals of the Can Can Girls will furnish a background. The murals, work of Mrs. Clifford Hudson, artist with brush in hand, are being admired by Mrs. Laurence Smith, chairman.

Family Here

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Douglass, 4143 W. 175th St. had as their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Douglass, Jr. and children of Lompoc. Other members of the family, Mrs. Marvin Douglass, Sr. and Richard Douglass of Lompoc spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, 20551 Madison St.

On Saturday evening, those mentioned and Mr. and Mrs. Don Douglass and Miss Helen Douglass gathered at the Alexander home for a Mother's Day affair for Mrs. Marvin Douglass, Sr.

Monday, Mrs. Douglass and her son, Richard, left for Industry, Ill., to visit the family of Richard's fiancée, Miss Jan Farr.

CHECKING WRAP . . . Mrs. Frank Forester, president of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary, hands her wrap to the Hat Check Girl, Joanne Satter, in a typical French costume. Proceeds from this gala cocktail-dansant will go to the hospital.

Betsy Ross Club

Betsy Ross Club of the Torrance Eastern Star will hold its regular monthly meeting May 17 at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. Freda Shaffer, president, will conduct the business meeting. Refreshments will be served.

"Lourdes" Described

The spring meeting of the combined guilds of St. Lawrence Marlyr Catholic Church was held Wednesday evening, May 11, at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

Mrs. John McCarry, the council president, conducted the meeting and the spiritual program coordinator, Mrs. Herbert Grosswendt, introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Mrs. Marie de Vrahnos Baker, whose subject was "My Own Experience at Lourdes."

In the April 1958 Reader's Digest, Mrs. Baker had an article entitled "Our Own Miracle at Lourdes." In the Archdiocese paper, The Tidings, Mrs. Baker had an article on how she had collected hundreds of blankets for the hospital at Lourdes. Mrs. Baker talks to parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles on Lourdes.

. . . Ann Landers

We were married in June of 1949. I say we will be celebrating our 11th anniversary this coming June. He says it's the 12th. Which is it?—MRS. N.S.

Dear Mrs. N.S.: Your 11th anniversary is coming up. Congratulations. (I'll bet your husband counted the first year as an anniversary, which it is not.)

Confidential to ON CLOUD 10: Stay within the limits (both city and otherwise). If you're interested in the long haul, don't take any short trips.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love or Sex?" enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper or Copyright 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc. enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Houseguests At Manley Home

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hancock of Virginia City, Nev., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Britt of Utica, N.Y., have been the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Manley of Bailey Dr. for the past two weeks. The guests visited all the places of interest in the area and were honored at a patio barbecue at the Manley home with 24 guests attending. The couples left by plane on April 29 for their homes.

Mary Bench Married To Navy Man
Auxiliary Plans Busy Ball Season

Looking lovely in an aqua chiffon sheath dress was Mary Bench, when she plighted her troth with Boatswain Jack W. Elliott, of the USS Hornet. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dale Stanton, 23105 Falena St. and J. H. Blakeley of San Diego. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Elliott of Lanett, Ala., are the bridegroom's parent.

The bride's brother, Stan Blakeley, gave the bride away in the rites which took place in the home of Judge John Shidler, who performed the ceremony Monday evening, May 2.

Karen Johnston, attired in beige bouffant polished cotton, served as maid of honor. Jerry Boruss acted as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, the newlyweds were feted at a party given by the bridegroom's shipmates at the home of the bride's parents on Falena St.

Mrs. Elliott was graduated from Grossmont High school in El Cajon. Mr. Elliott received his high school diploma while in the U.S. Air Force, where he served 3 years. He has been in the Navy two and one-half years and will make that his career.

The bride will continue to live with her parents until Mr. Elliott's return in December from overseas, at which time they will then establish their own home.

Eastern Star Has Meeting

Torrance Chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star held its regular meeting Thursday evening in the Masonic Temple. Marguerite and Edward Morgan presided as hosts for the evening, giving a short address of welcome. The meeting was called to order by the worthy patron, Raymond Lougee and all officers entered. The flag was posted in the East by Clyde Satterfield, and all pledged allegiance. The Chapter was opened in regular form by the worthy matron, Bernice Ruppel. Past matrons and past patrons were introduced from the sidelines. Florence Viellenave substituted as warder for the evening. The worthy matron and worthy patron both gave interesting speeches and made arrangements of meeting for the next two weeks.

Letha Wells, chairman of the evening, invited members and guests of meetings for the next committee consisted of Ethyl Peverley, Phyllis Peverley, Francis Peverley, Fern Mead, Earl Wells and Carolin Hedrich.

At the last meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Torrance Little League, held at Washington School, plans were formulated for a very busy season and past events were discussed.

The profit realized from the pancake breakfast held April 23 at a Food Mart on 190 and Inglewood in Redondo Beach was $815.23.

A beauty contest was held at Flavian School at 7 o'clock, April 26, to elect Miss Baseball and Miss Little League. Miss Holly Febles, whose brother plays in Pony League, was named as "Miss Little League," and Miss Janet Sparks, whose brother plays for the Senators in Torrance Little League was named "Miss Baseball." Miss Herma Tillam, Torrance business woman, and Mrs. Gale Murray judged the contest.

The women were thanked for their participation in the planting, which was held April 28 at their new field in the Entradero Sump.

The profit from the popcorn and snowcone booth at Carl Steele Carnival netted the League $64.63.

The boys of the league participated in both the Torrance and Redondo Little League Opening Day parades and ceremonies on Saturday, May 7. Miss Baseball and Miss Little League from Torrance Little League took part in the Torrance activities.

On Saturday, May 14, Torrance Little League will open with a parade and ceremonies at their new field in the Entradero Sump in Torrance. Rev. Paul Cox from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Redondo Beach and Father McKenna from St. James Catholic Church in Redondo Beach will participate in the opening ceremonies. Pat Hogue, head of the Baseball Commission in Torrance, will be the master of ceremonies for the event. Following the ceremony, all of the teams in the League will play two innings of baseball.

Cruise Guests

An all-day cruise for dependents was recently held aboard the USS Hornet. The ship left at 9 a.m. and returned at 4 p.m. During the cruise they demonstrated the firing of guns, landing of a plane and a helicopter, and the transfer of a man in a chair on a line from one ship to another while both ships were moving, such as they have to do when one of the crew members is hurt or ill. The guests also had a chance to sample Navy cooking, when they ate their lunch in the ship's mess.

Those from Torrance making the cruise were Mrs. Jack Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stanton and son, Leslie, Stan and Jimmy Blakeley, Karen and John Johnston, and Mrs. Helen LaMar.
