Lawndale Mayor Backs Hahn for June Elections

Mayor Chester A. Brown of Lawndale told his constituents this week that it is imperative to continued honest government that Kenneth Hahn be re-elected supervisor of the second district.

Joining Mayor Brown in firmly endorsing Supervisor Hahn are all four members of the Lawndale City Council — Frank T. Hogan, Thomas L. Thorpe, Ernest W. Beles and Charles E. Crawford.

"What this country needs in all government levels," Mayor Brown said, "is men who have the moral courage, integrity and intelligence to recognize and render decisions on a multitude of complex problems. Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has demonstrated that he has these qualifications."

The Lawndale mayor concluded by saying, "Hahn has continually advocated efficiency and economy in operation of all government levels," and stressed that his endorsement of Supervisor Hahn was "unequivocal."

Lawndale, newest of four cities in the second supervisorial district, was incorporated in December, 1959.

Scouts Salute Torrance Area Drive Leaders

Thirteen men from Torrance and three from Lomita were among campaign leaders of the Boy Scouts of the Harbor District honored at a victory dinner Tuesday night at Mar-ineland Restaurant.

The dinner celebrated the successful completion of a sustaining membership campaign.

Torrance men received recognition included John Schwartz, Phil Keller, Stan Shaw, Nile Wright, W.H. Greenwald, Woodrow Welty, James McClain, Robert S. Fernley, James Giacalone, Ken Miller, Don L. Houston, Herald Frenz, and Leonard Peterson.

Lomita men honored included Ernest Degner, Art Holstein, and W.A. Treuter.

Also honored were campaign leaders from San Pedro, Wilmington, and Gardena. Dinner chairman was Tom Turner, district plant manager for the Pacific Telephone Co.

Footlight Play To Open at City Plunge June 3

Final polish is being put on actors who will present "Night Must Fall" at the city plunge Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, June 3, 4, and 5.

The drama, produced by the Recreation Department sponsored Footlight Theater, will feature Jack Conrad as the murderous psychopath; Pat Mellis as a hydrochondiac old lady; and Iona Claston as the niece who would like to get away from the old lady's bitter tongue.

Others in the case include Jim Claxton, Irene Conry, Evelyn Jones, Doris Wesson, and Steward Angus.

Herman Boodman, who has had more than a dozen years directing community theater groups, is directing the "Night Must Fall" cast.

Ticket information may be obtained from Mrs. Boodman at DA 9-5338. Tickets will be priced at $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for those under 18 years of age.

John Jones Completes Wool Course

John T. Jones, 23877 Madison St., was graduated Friday from the 11th Wool Finishing Course at the National Institute of Drycleaning at Silver Springs, Md. Seven others took the two-weeks course.

Jones, the son of Tom Jones, 3020 Winlock Rd., is employed at the Walteria Cleaners operated by his father at 24264 Hawthorne Ave.

Young Jones just completed a four-year tour of duty with the U.S. Navy where he saw duty in Panama, Long Beach, San Francisco, Virginia and San Diego.

He is married to the former Virginia Devel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Devel, 3203 Winlock Road.
