

Madrecitas To Install Officers

Installation will be conducted for 1960-61 officers of Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Orthopedic Hospital, at a luncheon on June 2, at the Cockatoo Inn, Hawthorne.

Mrs. Robert Cameron, chairman of the event, announced at the regular monthly business meeting that Mrs. Harold Leslie, Jr., founder and past president of the auxiliary, will officiate at the ceremony. At her side will be Mrs. F. Helen Parker, auxiliary chairman from the Orthopedic Hospital, who was instrumental in the forming of this South Bay chapter. Other members of the hospital board have also been invited.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Horace LeCuyer, retiring president, will present each new officer with a corsage to commemorate the occasion.

Officers to accept the pledge and begin her term will be Mrs. Glen Kleinhesselink, president; Mrs. Richard Egan, first vice president; Mrs. Hans Hansen, second vice president; Mrs. David Levine, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Bescoy, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Louis Lanzer, treasurer; Mrs. William Buchanan, historian; Mrs. Joseph Rohlinger, auditor.

Celebration For Frankie

His fourth birthday will long be remembered by Frankie Paour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour III, 1321 Florwood Ave. The celebration began in the morning when Frankie and his parents spent the day at Marineland, topping it off with a birthday luncheon.

When they returned home in the evening, Frankie's friends gathered for a birthday party in the patio.

Each guest was given a bubble blower and a contest was held to find the champion at blowing bubbles.

The patio was decorated in crepe paper and balloons and on a redwood table was a large birthday cake. It was served with punch, ice cream and candy. At the end of the party, Frankie was given a grey kite which he named "Binbo."

Party guests were David Paour, Scott Leech, Melody and Robin Maddock, Lori Ann Rushfeldt, Debbie Farrar, Joe Mortenson, Jon and Kim Hornbeck, Sandy, Randy, Rickey, and Billy King.

Arts-Crafts Club Meets

Mrs. Zelma Miller and Mrs. Emily Middleton were co-hostesses to the Arts and Crafts club which met last Friday evening in the rumpus room at the home of Mrs. Hazel Ward, 1625 Beech Ave.

Mrs. Florence Childs, president, conducted the meeting during which the club's welfare work was discussed.

The evening was spent with members working on their various crafts. The hostesses served refreshments.

Club members present were Mes. Leah Arterburn, Maybel Banks, Melvina Beckwith, Cora Bohrer, Helen Carpenter, Vivian Cook, Vera Hamilton, Ruth Hardin, Mae Jones, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Frances Snodgrass and Hazel Ward.

Guests were Mrs. Lillian Shriner, who is a charter member of the club, Mrs. Viola Shaw of Montana and Mrs. Lucy McLaughlin.

Luncheon For Mrs. J.K. Lees

Mrs. James K. Lees was the honoree at a lovely luncheon and baby shower given last Thursday by Mrs. John Schwartz and Mrs. Joe Bay at the Bay home, 14 Coach Rd., Rolling Hills.

The hostesses chose a yellow and white color theme emphasized with a stork tree and cradle and bouquets of yellow and white flowers.

Mrs. Lees was presented with a shower of baby gifts.

With the honoree and hostesses for the luncheon were Mes. Allen Hofferber, Howard Altermatt, D. E. Moore, Edward Aiken, William Rogers, C. Coyman, E. Ryar, Kenneth Boulter, Lee Clotworthy, E. Nichols and R. Ray Cedar.
