Mrs. Grubb Dies, Rites Conducted

Funeral services were held here yesterday for Marion Dolores Grubb, 39, wife of Gerald Grubb, 1626 Elg Ave., who died Wednesday at Torrance Memorial Hospital following a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Grubb was a native of California and had lived in this area throughout her lifetime. She and her husband operated Gerald's Market in Torrance for several years.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Linda and Jerje; her mother, Alice M. Speieger, and a brother, Raymond Speieger, all of Torrance.

The Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman, pastor of the First Methodist Church to which Mrs. Grubb belonged, conducted yesterday's services at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel. Burial was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

Obituaries

JOHN ANDRESEN

Funeral services were held in Lowden, Iowa, Friday for John Henry Andresen, 90, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Dealey in Palos Verdes Estates. Mr. Andresen, who was employed for 60 years as a machinist for the A. B. Freund Co., had resided here for six years. He also leaves three sons, Emil and Lorenz of Chicago, and Fred of LaCanada; and two other daughters, Maria Johnson and Olga Andresen, both of Redondo Beach. Halverson-Leavell Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

MARIE MICKELS

Funeral services for Marie Mickels, 82, sister of Henry Rauck of Torrance, were held yesterday afternoon at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel with Pastor William Roeder of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance officiating. In addition to her brother, she is survived by two sisters, Ida Iverson of St. Paul, Minn., and Clara Perz of Cuba. Interment was in Roosevelt Cemetery.

Music Recital In Park Today

Slim Edwards Music Studios will present a recital of students from 1 to 4 p.m. today in the Torrance Park bandshell, featuring the music of nearly 100 musicians individually and in combined numbers.

Featured will be guitarists, violins, accordions.

The public is invited to attend the recital, Edwards said. "It's a fine chance for a Sunday picnic and a concert in the park," he added.

First Aid Classes to Open

First aid classes are scheduled to begin at Narbonne Baptist Church in Lomita next Wednesday with registration from 10 to 12 noon according to Mrs. John O'Donnell, who is responsible for organizing the program.

Actual classes will begin June 15 during the same hours and will continue for five weeks. Robert Stockton, from the Los Angeles County Red Cross, will be instructor.

Mrs. O'Donnell, of 2456 W. 248th St., felt the need for first aid education in the Torrance-Lomita area and after contacting the local Civil Defense office for guidance went on to set up the program. Ladies wishing further information may call Mrs. O'Donnell at DA 5-1606. A nursery will be provided for the children of mothers attending.
