Demonstrations On Rug-Making at Broadway

Demonstrations on rug-making techniques which can turn today's housewife into a creative craftswoman have been scheduled by Broadway Del Amo for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the needlework department.

Rosemary Gibson, representing Bernat Yarns, will demonstrate the art of hooked-rug making at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Monday; 10:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Tuesday; and at the same hours on Wednesday.

She also will show a collection of finished rug models and will discuss patterns, colors, and decorative ideas.

Church-State Separation Sermon Topic

Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, will speak at 10:45 a.m. at the church receives new members, and again at 7 p.m. on the topic of "Separation of Church and State."

"When religions of certain candidates become an issue in an election, Christians should be informed on the subject," he explained.

The Board of Christian Education will meet at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday and the Sunday School workers conference at 7:30.

A youth luau will be held at Cabrillo Beach beginning at 5:30 p.m. next Saturday, June 11. Reservations are being made at the church office.

Westvaco Names New
West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. has promoted John Floyd to the newly created position of technical sales service manager for its Multiwall Bag Division, it was announced by Victor S. Luke, division manager.

Luke said the creation of this post is an integral part of the company's quality and service program. As technical sales service manager, Floyd will plan and direct the many problems which face the people of this country," Siciliano said.

Other officers of the Italo-American Voters Inc., with offices at 408 South Spring St., Los Angeles, are Peter Smaldino, vice-president; Lawrence B. DiCaro, and Charles M. Muschetto, treasurer.

CONSTRUCTION STARTED . . . Erection of a major new building for the American Savings branch office at the South Bay Center has been started and is scheduled to be completed about Oct. 1, it has been announced by Sven Lillquist, branch manager. The new facilities will be at 1939 Kingsdale Ave., and will be two-story, air-conditioned, and will feature latest account handling equipment.

South High Student Honored by Name Spaeth Principal of California Savings, Loan League

Among the 114 high school honor seniors in the county honored by winning an Outstanding Student Award was Michael Richard Robbins, 17, of South High School. Robbins, selected by his school faculty, is sponsored by Harbor Savings and Loan Assn. of Redondo Beach.

The $50,000 award program is co-sponsored annually by the individual members of the county's savings and loan associations and the California Savings and Loan League.

PRESENTATION of the award was made at a Recognition Luncheon for 400 persons held at the Biltmore Hotel which was attended by parents of the students, school teachers and officials and association executives. Each winner received a cash award and a bronze medallion.

Harbor Savings and Loan Assn. said, "we are proud of Mike Robbins because of his excellent all around record. He has proved himself a leader among his contemporaries."

MIKE HAS played varsity football four years and he has won his letter in track and golf. He has been student body president and boys league president," Wall continued.

Young Robbins' major is mathematics in which he excels, Wall said, and he expects to attend Air Force Academy and become an engineer.

PRINCIPAL speaker at the luncheon was Dr. Frederic P. Woellner, professor emeritus of education, UCLA.

Others who spoke were M.F.B. MacBan, chairman, savings and loan league school relations committee; Lewis S. Eaton, league president; and Dr. Herber Holloway, superintendent, Whittier Union High School District.

Brother Frank Spaeth, SM, has been appointed Principal of Junipero Serra High School in Gardena, and will take office in late August.

Brother Spaeth comes from Ohio where he attended Xavier University. He has done graduate studies in physics at the University of California and is presently completing further graduate work at the University of San Francisco. He served in the Marine Corps for three and a half years before entering the Marianist Novitiate in Beacon, New York in 1948. The new Principal came to the West Coast in 1951.

Brother Spaeth has taught in the Marianist Schools in California since 1951; he has had teaching positions at St. Joseph High School in Alameda, Calif.; he was then transferred to Rioridan High School, San Francisco, where he was Head of the science department. For the past three years he has been superior of the Marianist Scholasticate at Villa St. Joseph in Santa Cruz.

He will fill the office vacated by Brother Joseph Hoffman, SM, who was named by Father Leonard M. Fee, SM, Provincial, to the new house of studies for the young Marianists at the Marianists' college in Honolulu.
