Obituaries

MARY M. BRUNST

Requiem mass was celebrated Saturday at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita for Mary M. Brunst, 84, who made her home at 2714 Loftyview Drive. Mrs. Brunst, who was born in Germany on June 16, 1875, had resided in California for 40 years and in Torrance for five years prior to her death June 8.

Rosary was recited Friday night at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel. The Rev. Fr. John V. Hagarty was celebrant at the funeral mass Saturday.

Mrs. Brunst is survived by two daughters, Dorothy Jacoby of Torrance and Loretta Chap-ed by August I. Chace concluded. man; two sons, William and Frank Brunst; seven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Interment was in All Soul's Cemetery, Long Beach.

THOMAS H. PERKIN

Funeral services for Thomas Henry Perkin, former Torrance police officer, were held in Vacaville Friday afternoon. Mr. Perkin died earlier last week after suffering a heart attack.

Mr. Perkin joined the Torrance police force in May, 1936, and served until April, 1943, leaving to accept employment with the state's prison security force. He was acting sergeant at the time he resigned from the Torrance force.

After serving in security section of various state prisons, Mr. Perkin was transferred to the Vacaville State Prison five years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Cissley; a daughter, Devon; and two brothers, Frank and Kenneth, both of Torrance. Also surviving are two sisters, Myrtle Melz of Chino and Evelyn Burrows of Clear Lake; and an aunt, Mabel Moore, of Torrance.

The Vacaville Masonic lodge was in charge of services; and burial was in the Masonic plot in the Vacaville cemetery.

MARIE DALY

Short funeral services attended by close friends were held here yesterday afternoon for Marie Daly, 34, a waitress who resided at 1444 Ravenna Ave. A native of North Dakota, Mrs. Daly had resided here four years. Her husband, Woodrow Daly, is reported at sea with the Merchant Marines.

Final rites and burial will be in Portland, Ore. Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel made local arrangements.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Daly is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mildred Tri, and a brother, Glen Tri.

JOHNNIE SESSUM

Funeral services for Johnnie Roy Sessum, 4-year-old son of Mrs. Maxine Harris, will be held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel Saturday afternoon at 2 with Bishop Nelson Rentmeister of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints officiating.

The Sessum child died Saturday when he was crushed by a 5-ton truck near his mother's home at 340 E. 213th St. The truck driver was not aware of the tragedy until notified later by the California Highway Patrol.

Burial is scheduled in Roosevelt Cemetery.

STEVEN SVABOSKY

Funeral mass was celebrated at the Church of the Nativity here yesterday morning for Steven Svabosky, 67, who resided at 816 Amapola Ave., with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. McCarthy as the celebrant.

Mr. Svabosky, a resident here for 18 years, was employed by the Burke & Reynolds Construction Co. at the time of his death. He formerly worked in the steel mills here. He was a native of Czechoslovakia.

Rosary for Mr. Svabosky was recited at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel Tuesday evening. Interment yesterday was in All Soul's Cemetery.

He is survived by his widow, Anna; three sons, Joseph of Seattle, Steven Jr. of Redondo Beach, and Albert of Torrance; one daughter, Lucille Jones of Wilmington; a brother in Czechoslovakia, and eight grandchildren.

Revival Opens Sunday Evening

Dr. Johnny Woamck, pastor of the Grace Baptist Church of Santa Ana, will open revival services at the First Missionary Baptist Church at 1429 W. 182nd St. at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, it was announced here yesterday by the Rev. George M. Rowell, pastor.

Dr. Woamck, evangelist and worker in foreign mission fields, will speak on such topics as "God's Power," "Rapture of the Saints," and "When the Lights Go Out."
