Huge Collection of Indian Lore to Be Displayed Here

A comprehensive collection of arts and crafts depicting the life and customs of the American Indian is scheduled for exhibition from July 1st through the 11th in both the Inglewood and Torrance lobbies of Southwest Savings and Loan.

Shown for the first time in the South Bay area are objects ranging from prehistoric implements to more modern handwork.

and Torrance locations so they may see the exhibit in its entirety.

THE MATERIAL was loaned to Southwest Savings through the courtesy and cooperation of the world-famous Southwest Museum in Highland Park.

The American Indian Exhibit is open to the public without charge. Scouting and Indian Guide groups will find the showing especially valuable, sponsoring officials said.

On display are such items as ceremonial pieces, choice basketry, pottery, beadwork, featherwork, bows and arrows, blankets, sashes, Kachina dolls, jewelry, hand-loomed fabrics, and much more reflecting the lore and tradition of Indian tribes of the Southwest Sedentary and Nomadic, California, Plains, Northwest and Eskimo.

SUCH HISTORIC names as Pueblo, Navaho, Sioux, Cheyenne, Mission, Pima, Hupa, Comanche, Apache, and Hopi are well represented.

Because different articles have been distributed to both offices, Southwest Savings urges those who can make the trip to visit their Inglewood

Jack D. Hawke, boilerman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Hawke of 1437 1/2 W. 227th St., serving aboard the destroyer USS Jarvis, took part in the 52nd annual Portland Rose Festival at Portland, Ore., June 8-13.

A contingent of 10 Navy ships visited the city during the festival. The 3500 man complement of sailors and Marines are traditionally part of the celebration, giving the citizens of the area and thousands of tourists the opportunity to visit with their Navy and Marine Corps afloat.
