Airman Mary E. DeBord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. O'Connor of 2506 W. 18th Place, has been assigned to a unit of the Military Air Transport Service at Scott AFB, Ill., for training and duty as a Communications Center Specialist. She recently completed basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

Airman DeBord, a graduate of Schulte High School, Terre Haute, Ind., enlisted through the USAF Recruiting Office, 1319 1/2 Sartori, Torrance.

WAF assigned to duty station from basic at Lackland will receive on-the-job training under highly qualified specialists. During their eight weeks of basic, they are selected for assignments on the

JOHN W. BLODGETT

A first solo flight was made June 2, by Naval Cadet John W. Blodgett, son of Mrs. Naomi Atchison of 5306 Carlson St. Before entering the service in November 1959, he graduated from El Camino Junior College.

In addition to solo flights, he is being instructed in Communications, Navigation, Engineering, Athletics, Aerology and civil air regulations during basic flight training at Pensacola, Fla.

Dennis R. Lotspeich, 2115 W. 169th Place, local Army reservist, has forsaken his usual land-locked routine to participate in an amphibious maneuver at Camp Pendleton and Coronado this month. The operation is part of the annual training of the 368th Transportation Command (Terminal C) Commanded by Brigadier-General Charles S. McCormick Jr.

The maneuver will be preceded by intensive training in traditional combat techniques as well as such modern subjects as psychological and radiological warfare.

Lotspeich, who is a SFC in the unit is in I.G. Section. In civilian life he is a policeman.

Paul E. Rowe, airman, USN, of 2314 Torrance Blvd., is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Shangri-la conducting underway training at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

The Shangri-la recently joined the Atlantic Fleet after a 14,000 mile journey around South America from her former homeport of San Diego.

The "flat-top" will remain in Cuban waters until the end of July, when it will return to its new homeport of Mayport, Fla.

Walter E. Fulps, hospital corpsman second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fulps of 1559 W. 206th St., and husband of the former Miss Colleen J. Clind of El Monte, graduated from the X-Ray Technician School at the Naval Hospital, Oakland, Calif., June 10.

He has been transferred to the hospital ship USS Haven at Long Beach.

Before entering the Navy in July 1954, Fulps graduated from Kailua High School, Kailua, Oahu, Hawaii.

George W. Ross Jr., apprentice chief petty officer, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ross of 2750 Arlington Ave., graduated June 24 from nine weeks of Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Donald E. Longstreet, machinist's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Longstreet of 20550 Earl St., is serving aboard the store ship USS Graffias operating out of Sasebo, Japan.

basis of interests, aptitudes, and the needs of the Air Force.

Personnel assigned directly to a duty station are immediately integrated into operational or training units of the USAF Aerospace Force.

John R. McCombs, chief of the engine and accessories division of the Minuteman weapons system office at the Inglewood Ballistic Missiles Center, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel. It was announced at the center this week.

Colonel McCombs, who resides at 5024 Carmen St., has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, and the Air Force Missile Badge. He is rated as an Air Force Command Pilot. During World War II, he served with the 91st Bomb Group in England.

Warren R. Heaton, fire control technician third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Heaton of 1816 Calamar, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger, operating in the Western Pacific.

Airman Third Class George H. C. Boscon, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cook, 1743 Arlington Ave., who is a member of the USAF Aerospace Force, graduated recently from the Aircraft Control and Warning Operator Course (SAGE) at Keesler Air Force Base. Airman Boscon has been assigned to Truax Air Force Base, Madison, Wisconsin to take his place on the team of America's expanding aerospace force of manned aircraft and missiles.
