Revival Winds Up With Youth Night Sunday

The Baptist Tent Revival at Crenshaw and 101 Highway will continue through the Sunday evening service at 7:30 p.m. each night. The attendance at this event has exceeded anything expected. The singing, led by the 100 voice choir, has been one reason for the high attendance. Dr. Joe Trussell has directed the singing.

Saturday night has again been designated as Youth Night. The evangelist, Dr. O. Byron Richardson, has indicated he will bring a message directed especially to the youth.

The final service on Sunday night is expected to attract the largest attendance of the two week campaign. There have been seven Southern Baptist churches operating in the two week campaign.

Church school meets during the 9 a.m. and kindergarten departments during the 10:30 a.m. worship service.

Temple Beth Torah Dinner Dance Slated

Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 S. Graneray Pl., Gardena, will hold their 13th annual installation and dinner dance next Sunday evening.

Rabbi Henry E. Kraus will give the benediction after which Max Stern, member and Master of Ceremonies for the evening will install the new officers. Incoming presidents of the Temple, Sisterhood and Mrs. Arthur Pickus and Dr. Men's club are Mrs. Leo Gans, Meyer Lipson.

Calvary Pastor Attends Green Lake Confab

H. Earl Kuester, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., will represent his church and the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society at the National Baptist Evangelism conference at Green Lake, Wisconsin, next week. Pastor Kuester, who is chairman of the Department of Evangelism of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society, will leave after the morning services next Sunday, and will return the following Saturday. He will travel to the conference by jet.

Green Lake is the location of the American Baptist Assembly grounds for national summer conferences held by that denomination.

The pastor will preach at the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. duplicate Sunday services on "How to Know Jesus Christ." The 7:00 p.m. vesper service will be in charge of the "Timothians," Calvary Baptist youth who are committed to full time Christian service. Al Van Selow, minister of Christian education and youth, will bring the message.

While the pastor is at Green Lake, John Kandathil, an international student from India, will speak at the 7:30 p.m. prayer meeting on July 26. Mr. Kandathil, who was recently graduated from the Fuller Theological Seminary, will be leaving Southern California by the end of July to return to his native India. He plans to give leadership to the Christian movement there, and will tell the story of his proposed work to those who attend.
