Investigator Heads Pilot International

An attractive liability claims investigator for a Joplin, Mo., firm has been installed as president of Pilot Club International, a service organization of 13,000 executive business and professional women.

Mrs. Mary Virginia Anderson was installed at the closing session of Pilot's 40th annual convention in the Denver Hilton Hotel, Denver, Colo., Thursday, July 20.

She succeeds Mrs. Bobbie Burnham of Albuquerque, N.M., at the helm of the organization, which has more than 430 clubs in the United States, Canada, Bermuda, England, France and Japan.

Mrs. Anderson, a charter member of the Pilot Club of Joplin and the first Missourian named to the organization's executive committee, also is office manager for the Joplin law firm of Richart, Titus and Martin.

She first joined the firm in 1936. Later when her husband, Joseph R. Anderson, was transferred to Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. Anderson was employed as Chief Clerk to the U.S. Referee in Bankruptcy in Tulsa and worked extensively as a court reporter. She became a Certified Shorthand Reporter and is still a member of the National Shorthand Reporters Association.

She returned with her family to Joplin in 1956 after nine years and resumed her association with the same law firm. A claims investigator, she travels in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, handling primarily personal injury and workmen's compensation claims. Her work in that respect is rarely undertaken by women.

A Birthday Celebration

A family barbecue and children's pool party celebrated the second birthday of Gaylene Louise Butcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Butcher, Jr., 2223 W. 248th St., Lomita. The affair was held at the Torrance Park.
