ROUGH RIDE . . . Blue Bell, one of the most sensational bucking bulls in professional rodeo, gives Duane Howard a tough time during the National Finals Rodeo at Dallas last year. Howard and Blue Bell will be in action during the Torrance Rodeo, slated for two performances this weekend. Action will begin at 2:30 each afternoon in the arena located on the civic center grounds.

West LA Family Wins Glendale Savings Contest

A 15' x 30' swimming pool—grand prize in Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Association's "summertime living" contest—has been won by Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Upper, Jr., who reside at 11755 Montant Ave., West Los Angeles. When notified that his entry had been drawn by Torrance City Councilman J. A. Beasley from among 103,000 contest entries, Upper was speechless, then overwhelmed. "I just can't believe it," he finally managed to say. "I've never won anything before in my life." The drawing was held at Glendale Federal's Del Amo office in Torrance as part of that office's official opening ceremonies there. It topped the list of prizes that were offered in the "summertime living" savings program. The savings portion of the program is still being conducted at each of the association's 10 branch offices, offering a variety of free gifts for persons who open or add to savings accounts in amounts ranging from $250 and up.
