... To Live in Japan

Bergthold-Althoff Vows Read at St. Catherine's

At a high noon nuptial mass at the St. Catherine Labourer Catholic Church on July 29, Miss Carol Ann Bergthold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bergthold, 4125 W. 175th Place, plighted her marriage vows with Otto T.H. Althoff, III. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Otto T. H. Althoff, Fairborn, Ohio.

Rev. Maximo Villalueva officiated at the marriage and the mass and Mrs. Mary Hans played the nuptial music.

Coming to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza and Chantilly lace appliqued with sequins and seed pearls. A tiara held her organza and lace veil and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Paula Martin was the bride's honor attendant. She was gowned in moss green nylon taffeta and carried pink carnations.

Bob Brenner performed the duties of best man.

After the wedding, a reception for the 32 relatives and close friends attending, was held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Marlene Fulton was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at San Simeon.

Mr. Althoff, who is serving with the United States Marines in Japan will leave soon for his assignment. Mrs. Althoff, a graduate from North High School, will join her husband in the near future.

Commuter Fashions To Be Paraded at May Co.

Young fashion moves into fall with big and little wheels rolling back to school via May Co. South Bay Commuters Fashion Show Saturday, Aug. 26, at 11 o'clock in the Youth Center, immediately followed by a special Commuters Luncheon at a nominal price.

Combining honor roll fashions with important tips on back to school grooming, the show will be commented by Miss Caroline Leonetti, director of the Caroline Leonetti School of Charm and Modeling director.

The six to sixteen set will see new color blaze and great plays on shape in class and casual clothes, plus a beautiful feature of tips on charm, poise, modeling and self improvement. One full sixteen session course in modeling at Miss Leonetti's School will go to a lucky girl in attendance at the show.

Taking top priority in silhouette news is the young flare interpreted with a wandering waistline and seen in every phase of fashion from dresses and sportswear to coats. Colors are bright, off-beat and conversational. Fabrics add dimension and magnified patterns for a newer look. There's a whole wonderful world of fashion waiting to roll back to school, and it will start moving with May Co.'s Commuters Fashion Show.
