

Dick Cowden Hurls Two Hitter As Senators Shutout White Sox

Dick Cowden, making his final Tordondo Little League appearance, left his opponent something to remember as he hurled the Senators to a 13 to 0 win over the White Sox for the Major League championship, whiffing 12 men, allowing but two hits and bashing a home run in the process.

Two other graduating Little Leaguers helped Cowden dominate the game. Steve Sciarra went three for five and Dave Mosely clubbed two doubles in their farewell appearances.

The victory gave the Senators the crown for the second year in a row. Behind the five hit pitching of Greg Keister and a rugged defense, the Pirates gained the Minor League title by soundly defeating the Orioles, 13 to 5.

Hittless until the fifth inning, the Pirates took advantage of Oriole jitters and errors to rally and take the win. The Orioles also exploded in the
