ANN SHEEHAN . . . To Conduct Show

The Broadway Will Present Hat Display

Miss Ann Sheehan, noted international millinery consultant will appear at The Broadway Del Amo on Sept. 18 at 12 noon in the Terrace Room. She will commentate a fashion show featuring the most outstanding designer creations for the Fall Season. Names such as Mr. Arnold, John Frederics, Leslie James, Harnik, Vincent, Chanda and Suzy Lee will join the fashion parade with exciting millinery, showing the important trends for this season . . . such trends as the return to charm and gentility for mid-lady's chapeaux in the form of luxury in fur, the opulent look in late afternoon and evening, and the glamorous "more hat look" . . . which always demands a second look of admiration from men.

Miss Sheehan travels the world extensively doing research with the haute couture. She feels that a basic understanding of trends in the European, as well as the American Ready-to-wear markets, is essential to translate into existence the most beautiful millinery in the world.

Lodge Breakfast Next Sunday

Torrance Rebekah lodge 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will hold a breakfast on Sunday morning Sept. 17, at the home of Alice Jennings, 2319 W. 247th St., Lomita from 8 a.m. until noon.

Members of the Fun and Fund club will be in charge. All members and friends of the lodge are invited to attend.

Square Dance Class Opens

Cotton Pickers Square Dance club will sponsor a class for beginners on Monday Sept. 18 at the Stephen White Junior High school, 220th and Figueroa. The class will be open for new members for three weeks.

Wild Bill Forross will be the caller. Adults and teenagers are invited.

Charm Class Offered at Broadway

When it comes to charm . . . teens and sub-teens know where to find it. The Broadway Del Amo is offering charm courses beginning Sept. 18. Classes for girls 10-13 years of age start at 4 p.m., while girls 14-18 years old attend classes at 5 p.m. The sessions will run approximately one hour.

Classes are taught by qualified instructors, and each young lady participating receives a model hat box in which to carry materials needed for the course, and a special diploma designed for the graduate. Girl Scouts may gain points needed for attaining their good grooming badge.

The charm classes include sessions on improving posture and health, while others correct figure faults. Instruction is given on what to do about problem skin, its care, what kind of make-up to use and its proper application; on how to literally re-shape one's face by the proper hair do, and how to camouflage figure faults with the right wardrobe. Aside from all of these wonderful lessons, there are tips on modeling, proper care of clothing and just about every helpful suggestion that will make a young lady a real natural beauty.

Fuchsia Society Meets Friday

Lomita Fuchsia Society will hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. in the American Legion hall, 24702 Narbonne Ave., Lomita.

Irene Peronne, slide librarian of the California National Fuchsia society and president of the Wiseburn Branch, will be the speaker.

There will be a plant table and refreshments. The public is invited to attend.

Charity Ball Announced By Polish Unit

South Bay Chapter of the Women's Polish National Alliance Group 808 will join with other groups to stage a gala Charity Ball at the Ambassador Hotel on Sept. 23. Proceeds from the event will go to the fund of the Polish Disabled Veterans Relief Committee to be sent to Polish disabled veterans in Europe.

This action, strictly humanitarian in nature, is to help a group of people who gave their all to preserve freedom under God and who cannot be helped by their own country because they defied its forced enslavement to the Communists, stated Mrs. Helen Gorski, chairman, at the local meeting held at the home of Julia Lipkowski.

A special guest at the ball will be the last Commander-in-Chief of the Polish Armed Forces in exile, General of the Army Kazimierz Sosnkowski of Canada.

Movie celebrities and civic officials will also be on hand for the ball. Co-chairmen for the Torrance and South Bay area are Julia Lipkowski and Jean Saha.

On Sunday, Sept. 24, a memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. at the Our Lady of Mount Bright Polish Church in Los Angeles with General Sosnkowski in attendance. A dinner will follow.

Anyone wishing tickets may call Mrs. Jean A. Saha, 2626 Dalemead, Torrance, or Mrs. Julia Lipkowski.
