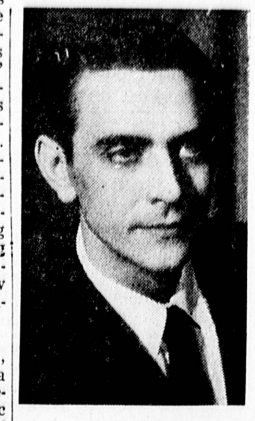
Local Composer-Director to Lead Los Cancioneros in Coming Season



LYLE HECK
Leads Los Cancioneros

As our community has grown during the past decade or more so have its varied social and cultural activities. Los Cancioneros, "The Singers," has kept pace with this expansion as a local mixed chorus which has gained in membership, repertoire and following.

This fall marks the beginning of its 30th successful concert season, bringing fine choral music to South Bay audiences. Members are looking forward to a most interesting year under the capable leadership of their talented new director, Lyle Heck, of Manhattan Beach.

* * *

A NATIVE of Wisconsin, Heck has been a California resident since 1954. Since receiving a bachelor of music degree at the University of Redlands he has been on national tour with the Roger Wagner Chorale as bass soloist and has appeared in numerous operas and concert works.

At the present time he is choirmaster at the Westchester Lutheran Church and music instructor for the Los Angeles City Schools. He also holds honorary positions as Choral Union Chairman for the National Conference of the American Lutheran Church and vice president of the Pacific Music Foundation.

* * *

A COMPOSER in his own right, Heck has won critical acclaim for his "Te Deum" for mixed chorus and numbers among his compositions instrumental quartettes, ensembles, string quartettes, anthems, and Lutheran Liturgical music.

Los Cancioneros will open its season with a concert of "Music of America" for the United Nations Program in San Pedro on Oct. 28 and has scheduled its traditional Christmas date for the Palos Verdes Arts Assn. In February they will perform "Major Works Concert" which will include "Psalms" by Lucas Foss and "Sacred Service" by Ernest Bloch.

* * *

MEN OF THE chorus will be featured in Randall Thompson's magnificent "Testament of Freedom" and "Quatuos" by Via Lobos will be in contrast using all women's voices.

"The Roaring Twenties" will be the theme for the Annual Spring Concert to be held in May giving the chorus a diversified year of song and drama.

There are still a few openings for new members in the group and any singer interested may contact Mrs. Don McLean at TErminal 5-9467.

Audience Lavish in Praise of Symphony Concert Sunday

Last Sunday evening at the Torrance High School Auditorium a delighted audience of over 700 persons heard Maestro Elyse Aehle conduct the Civic Symphony orchestra and four soloists in a popular concert which was a joy to hear.

This fine orchestra is being recognized as one of the best in Los Angeles county. Attesting to this fact are the many musicians from greater Los Angeles who may be recognized in the audiences. On this occasion this group, and, indeed, the whole audience were lavish with their praise.

* * *

MAESTRO Elyse Aehle began with a vigorous reading of Von Weber's Overture to "Euryanthe" and followed it with entrancing interpretations of the dramatic music which brought to life the zestful clowning of the comedians Bartered Bride," the sad little marionettes in their "Funeral March" by Gounod, the gay Vienna Strauss' "Emperor's Waltz" and the charming story of Roger's "Sound of Music." The large orchestra had fine tone, brilliant technique and follows the conductor with professional dexterity.

Torrance's young pianist, Jimmy Howard, gave the sensitive touch of an artist to Mozart's Romanza from the Piano Concerto. His flawless fluency and deep emotional understanding so pleased his hearers that he was recalled twice for encores. They were "Nocturne" by Grieg and exquisitly expressed and "The Little White Donkey" which trotted quickly along in a most charming way.

* * *

DOROTHY LEWIS sang with a beautiful voice and she is a beautiful girl, even though the poor lighting did not do her justice. Her singing brought out all the charm and sweetness of "Every Day's Sunny Day." Her encore, however, enabled her to demonstrate the promise of the really great singer which she can become.

Jeanie Dru, has an unusual voice and a saucy personality which should take her far in the popular field.

* * *

SCOTT DOUGLAS has a fine flexible voice and sure ability. He sings with professional art and assurance. He deserves the success he has already acquired and will acquire in the future.

The composers of all the songs, Edna Hinkel and Libby Quinn, were introduced and received an ovation from the audience which showed great pride that they were local people who had such talent.

* * *

ONE OF THE most encouraging things about the evening was that there were so many enthusiastic children there with their parents. A Boy Scout troop of Torrance, No. 327, were the honor guard for the flag and the young people all showed great interest all the way through the program.

Symphony president, Jim Darian, rewarded them with the announcement that the Civic Symphony is leading an area-wide youth symphony movement. Before leaving, many people left notes expressing their deep interest and a desire to assist in having a fine youth symphony in this city. — VERA MILES.

THE CARPING CRITIC

Grant me patience, just Heaven! Of all the cants which are canted in this canting world — though the cant of the hypocrites may be the worst — the can't of criticism is the most tormenting!

—LAURENCE STERNE

The great contention of criticism is to find the faults of the moderns and the beauties of the ancients. While an author is yet living we estimate his powers by his worst performance, and when he is dead we rate them by his best.

—SAMUEL JOHNSON
