

El Camino College to Note 15th Anniversary

Civic dignitaries representing communities within the El Camino College district will be campus guests Friday.

Observing the fifteenth anniversary of the opening of classes in the area, the college will honor mayors, administrative officers and managers of Chambers of Commerce.

Greeting the guests will be Jack N. Dabbs, Torrance, president of the college Board of Trustees. Vice president Seymour Rayer, Inglewood; Secretary Wallace H. Fraser, Hawthorne, and members Hilas C. Ashley and Foster A. Day of El Segundo, and Redondo Beach respectively, are also expected to attend.

AT THE luncheon, to be held in the Campus Center, community representatives will also be greeted by Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, president of the college and superintendent of the El Camino Junior College District. Other members of the college administrative staff will participate and the college's color film, "Freeways to Learning" will be shown to point out the development of the instructional program over the past 15 years.

Expected to attend the anniversary luncheon are Mary Donald Martin of Hawthorne and Robert S. Hartman, secretary manager of the Hawthorne Chamber of Commerce; Mayor Patricia Gazin, Hermosa Beach, and C. W. Shepherd, manager of the Hermosa Beach Chamber of Commerce.

WALTER HAHN JR., administrative officer, and Jerry Conger, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, Education Committee, will represent Inglewood. Mayor Chester A.

Brown, City Manager Edward J. Ferraro and Frank T. Hogan, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will constitute the Lawndale delegation.

Mayor Wilburn E. Baker and City Manager John Sailors will attend from El Segundo, while Torrance will be represented by Mayor Albert Isen, City Manager Wade E. Peebles and Don Reining, manager of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.
