

Two Saxons At New York Planetarium

Two North High sophomores, Diane Gardener and Stuart R. Goodgold, are getting more out of science, after attending a four-week course at the Hayden Planetarium in New York City.

Nearly 300 students attended the course in astronomy and space science. The classes were from 9 to 12 a.m., three days a week, with lectures starting in the morning, and followed by classroom work.

An atomic energy plant on Long Island was one of the field trips attended by the students. Both Diane and Stuart, while in New York, stayed at the Excelsior Hotel, and viewed

JAY H. BUSH
New Director

Firm Names New Trustee

Jay H. Bush who retired early this year from the National Supply Co. in Torrance where he was assistant treasurer and division credit manager has been named a member of the Nordon Corp. board of directors.

Bush retired from the local firm after serving 22 years. He started his business career with Fairbanks, Morse and Co. as credit manager in 1920. In 1936 he left to take a position with an independent oil corporation as executive vice president, leaving later to join National Supply.

Patriotic Education Week Set

Patriotic Education Week will be observed in the Torrance Schools Oct. 19-25 as a result of action of the Torrance Board of Education at its last regular meeting.

Local schools are planning assemblies and special exercises to recognize United States Day during this week. Patriotic youth groups, such as Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, will form honor guards at the daily flag raising ceremonies, and special units on American citizenship and patriotism will be studied in the classrooms.

Parents interested in observing any of these programs should contact the principal of the local school for specific information.

McMahan's Has Special Photo Offer at Store

Joe Benore, manager of McMahan's Furniture Store, Sartori and El Prado, has extended an invitation to all Torrance area residents to visit the store during the big October furniture sale now in progress and to take advantage of the special photo offer being made Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

During that time a large 16x 20-inch child's photo will be taken at an extremely low cost with a limit of one per family. Details can be found in the McMahan's advertisement in this issue of the HERALD.

Benore, who has been with the McMahan group for 14 years, pointed out that McMahan's have now been in business for 32 years with the first store opening in Bakersfield in 1929. There are now more than 100 stores independently owned and operated, he said.

The McMahan growth can be attributed to greater values, low prices, and friendly customer relationships, he stated.

School to Note Halloween With Parade, Circus

Hot dogs, punch, games and prizes will be a feature of the day when students at the 223rd Street Elementary School celebrate Halloween on Oct. 28 beginning at 10:30 a.m.

The day-long event will be topped with the appearance of the Ted DeWayne Bros. Circus, according to Mrs. Dwayne Witty, chairman of the day's activities.

In addition to the games and refreshments, members of the PTA will sponsor a bake sale and general store.

A costume parade of lit ghosts and goblins has been scheduled.

CIVIL DEFENSE WEEK... Setting plans for Civil Defense Week Nov. 11 to 17 are members of the American Legion and city officials. From left are Mayor Albert Isen; Bob Steele, parade coordinator; Wade Peebles, city manager; and Earle Sumpter, commander of the Bert S. Crossland Post of the Legion. Activities will include a parade, oratorical contest, and an essay competition. (Herald Photo)

WHITE CANE DRIVE... Observance of White Cane Days has been set for Oct. 20 through 22 by Torrance area Lions Clubs in keeping with the program started in Monterey Park several years ago. Kicking off the drive here is Mayor Albert Isen (a member of the Torrance club) who is receiving his symbolic cane from George Webb, chairman of the drive for the North Torrance Lions Club. Looking on at left is Nels Cullum, past president of the club; and Philip Bergin (right) drive committeeman. (Herald Photo)
