Miss Patsy Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, 25220 Oak St., Lomita, became the bride of Johnnie L. DeWitt, in an 8 o'clock ceremony last Saturday at the Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Juanita Gooch of Wichita, Kans., and Mr. Lawrence DeWitt of Lomita.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of Alencon lace detailed with long tapered sleeves, scoop neckline and a bouffant skirt applied with lace. A tiara held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of orchids and carnations.

Mrs. Geanette Gregory was matron of honor and Kay and Fay Cooper were bridesmaids. All wore apricot taffet sheaths and carried carnation nosegays.

Karen Cooper was the flower girl and Carey Walker was ringbearer.

Cecil Turnbaugh stood as best man and ushers were Marvin Smith and Lewis Markham.

The Rev. Robert F. Wells officiated at the marriage ceremony and Mrs. Verna Thistle was organist. Gloria Cooper sang "Because" and "Wedding Prayer."

A reception was held at the church. The couple will make their home in Washington.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school. Her husband, educated in Kansas, is serving with the United States Navy in Washington.

Ann Landers

food or drink he should have.

Dear Ann Landers: About that letter signed Sam—from the husband who complained because his wife spent so much money and was a lousy manager. I'm sure that letter was written by my husband. He didn't even have the decency to change his name. Well MY name is Ethel and here is my side of the story.

We wouldn't be broke all the time if Sam didn't write checks on our joint account and forget to tell me. He doesn't even deduct the amount from his balance. He just writes checks like crazy and acts like the money stays in the bank.

He makes me see red when I think we're in good shape and I get a slip saying we're overdrawn. So, what can I do with a guy like that? — ETHEL

Dear Ethel: You can see that "a guy like that" has his separate checking account. It would save a lot of wear and tear on your nerves and he might behave better if he alone was responsible for the balance.

Confidential to SOUNDS OF MUSIC: Stop seeing this man before you hear other sounds — like an attorney (or a wife).

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting — And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
