

Pre-Nuptial Party Whirl Fetes Jacqueline Johnson

Miss Jacqueline Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Nelson, and bride-elect of John Adams, has been honored at two pre-nuptial parties.

Last Monday evening, Mrs. Florence Neely entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Johnson at her home, 2639 W. 225th St. Floral arrangements of white chrysanthemums were used in decorating as well as shower umbrellas and party favors. The dining table was centered by a blue and silver cake.

Games were played after which the future bride opened her gifts. The hostess served refreshments.

The party list included Mes. Walter Shearer, Gertrude Hartwig, Emil Anderson, Gordon Bailey, Charles Purnu, Charles Wheeler, C. T. Lovellette, A. J. Fraboni, Ray Wyatt, Howard Nelson, Roland Rudberg, Ed Slattery, Betty Nolen; Misses Ricky Lee Fraboni and Sharon Hartwig.

A personal shower last week given by Mrs. E. C. Anderson, 2639 W. 225th completed the bride-elect.

Pink carnations and white chrysanthemums were used to decorate. Centering the table was a pink umbrella decorated with roses and each guest received a matching party favor.

After Miss Johnson had opened her gifts, the hostess served a pink and white ice, cake and coffee.

Bringing gifts were Mes. George Hager, Lonnie Smith, Walter Kolar, Nolen Carman,

Philanthropies Mark Diana's Business Meet

Mrs. Paul Taylor, president of the Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership, presided over the October business meeting Monday evening, Oct. 2, at the Redondo Beach Women's Clubhouse, 400 S. Broadway. Mrs. Taylor introduced Mrs. Don Beard, Diana co-ordinator.

It was announced that a District round table dinner, to honor past district officers, would be held at the Inglewood Women's clubhouse on Oct. 23.

Mrs. Robert Dreizler, district president's aide, gave a resume of the Area C conference that was held in Anaheim last Saturday. She stated that three members of the Dianas attended the conference.

Diana members will place canisters in Redondo Beach businesses and money collected will be turned over to the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc.

Armed Forces chairman, Mrs. Forrest Johnson, will purchase decks of cards to be sent to "Chaplains Service Corps."

The Dianas will sponsor an Americanism essay contest for eighth grade students at Hillcrest and Adams Junior High School. The awards will be a $25 bond for first place, $10 for second place, and $5 for the third place winner.

Miss Jeannie Moody, art chairman, passed around a clever art box for "Pennies for Art." She then introduced her guest, Mrs. Anne Shirley, who exhibited a number of oils in different techniques. Mrs. Shirley gave a brief summary of her paintings and how her hobby was started.

Civil defense leaflets were distributed to members present. The Dianas have joined the safety campaign to see that safety belts are installed in all new cars. Mrs. Marvin Anderson, International Affairs and hostess, announced that the $75 the Dianas sent to the Society of Love to Cartagena, Colombia, was spent to purchase ten desks and ten benches for the pupils attending the school for underprivileged children. The club members voted to help the poor people in Mexico by collecting clothing for them. The Dianas will be hostesses at the international Festival to be held at Aviation High in Redondo Beach on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 21 and 22. Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Dale Milburn, with her committee of Mes. Pat O'Leary, Charles Satterfield, Anthony Credico and Art Callen.
