

What is prayer? Prayer is a religious act having the form of an entreaty for granting a favor or forgiveness of sins, directed toward an object of worship in whose powers the answer is supposed to reside. Prayer is universal among all religions. The object of prayer is far its least important feature. Prayers become resolutions of good works, accompanied by faiths that those resolutions can be realized. The Diety receiving prayers are merely symbols and tangible objects serving to fix those faiths.

Open House Scheduled at Temple Menorah's New Building Sunday

Temple Menorah will hold an open house on Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. at the new building, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

George L. Lewison, Temple president, extends an invitation to all residents of the Torrance, South Bay, and Palos Verdes Peninsula areas to visit the new facilities located on a hillcrest site with a view of the entire area and Pacific Ocean. Invitations have been sent out to the churches, local service organizations, and city officials of the area cities and the Palos Verdes Peninsula communities.

Congregants have been asked to bring their friends and neighbors for a tour of the sanctuary-community hall, administrative offices, classrooms, lounge, library, kitchen and Judaica Shop.

KENNETH LIND Associates, A.I.A. architecture engineering firm of Los Angeles, completed the plans for the entire project which will be constructed in two phases. The plans were one of 25 selected to be displayed for the year 1961 by the Church Architectural Guild of America in its traveling exhibit which is viewed throughout the United States.

The Sisterhood is busy with plans for serving refreshments in the lounge on that day. Mmes. Sidney Greene, Gene Kaufman, and Stanley Lieber will decorate the tea table and take charge of the hostesses.

FOR THE table centerpiece they will use candlesticks of Israeli craftsmanship which have the Ten Commandments engraved on them. They are one of the many Israeli items on display in the Sisterhood's Judaica Shop.

Mmes. George L. Lewison and Henri E. Front are each lending their silver service to enhance the refreshment table. Hostesses at the tea table will be Mmes. Henri E. Front, George L. Lewison, Robert Eckhouse, Albert Carmona, Earle Sumpter, Irving Chaiken, Sidney Greene, Gene Kaufman, Stanley Lieber, Stephen Lewis, and Robert Kessler.

Rabbi Henri E. Front, spiritual leader, George L. Lewison, president, Cantor Harry Newman and the officers of the Temple, Sisterhood and Brotherhood boards of directors will be on hand to greet arrivals and show them around the new building.

World's Top Rummage Sale Opens Today

Torrance area residents will again be interested in today's "World's Largest Rummage Sale." The Pasadena Auxiliary of the Boys Republic will stage its 93rd semi-annual sale of "next to new" bargains. Pasadena Civic Auditorium doors will remain open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

There are 23 departments in which you'll find bargains of an unlimited variety. Mrs. Morris F. Sheldon, auxiliary president, urges all to visit the Pasadena Civic Auditorium on sale day where you'll find drama "second only to the Parade of Roses."
