

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

A Mailed Letter CAN Be Retrieved

Dear Readers: The wet noodle won't do this time. I will take, instead, 20 belts with a full mail bag.

It is indeed possible to retrieve a letter once it has been mailed. Hundreds of readers have told me so. It hardly seems worth the effort, but it CAN be done, and here's how:

If the letter is registered you must go to the post office and fill out withdrawal form 3855. If the letter is NOT registered, form 1509 will do.

You must state on the form the approximate size of the envelope, the hour and date it was mailed, where you deposited it, and why you want it back. You must also agree to pay any and all expenses incurred in retrieving the letter.

Thank you, dear readers, for letting me know. I feel as if I've landed in the Dead Letter office.

Dear Ann Landers: I married Lloyd with my eyes wide open. I could have had a getter and a good earner. But I preferred a good-looker and a smooth dancer. I've had to work from the day we were married.

I love to dance with Lloyd but I never get the chance. What happened at a recent company party is a good example. The girls married to the substantial types come over and say "Do you mind if I borrow your husband? Mine can't dance."

I feel like answering, "My husband isn't much at working. May I borrow $5 from your husband?"

When I complain to Lloyd he is just flattered. What can I do? — JEAN

Dear Jean: A company party is the last place a woman should expect to dance with her own husband. Especially if he's good.

Plan on dinner out every few weeks, and select a place with music. This should solve at least one of your problems.

Dear Ann Landers: I just read Darlene's letter about her mother reminding her to do little things and how she resented it bitterly. I have two teenage daughters and I know how they hate to be reminded. But this is what happens unless I ride herd on them:

They put the ice tray back in the refrigerator with no water in it. They pull out the plug but don't wash the bathtub. Their soiled clothes go in the drawers instead of the clothes hamper. The towels are bunched up on the racks instead of being spread out to dry. They forget to take the dog out at night and she has an accident on the rug.

Speaking as a mother with two daughters who must be reminded, I say it's the only way. Otherwise they wouldn't do one blamed thing. What do you have to say to this, Ann Landers? — A MOTHER, TOO

Dear Mother: Teenage girls who must be reminded to put water in the ice tray and to wash out the bathtub have had pretty shoddy training.

When a mother must repeat such simple instructions hundreds of times it is evidence that her voice has become like the bus that runs by the house. They've become so used to it, they don't even hear it anymore.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

In observance of United Nations Week, the Harbor Area American Assn. for the United Nations, will present Los Cancioneros in a program of American music on Oct. 28 at 8 p.m. in the San Pedro High school auditorium.

The event is a tribute of faith in the United Nations and is dedicated to the memory of Dag Hammarskjold. Elizabeth Shuck will play an organ prelude and Art Kaiser, president of the student body, will lead the pledge of allegiance prior to the singing of the National Anthem. William Doheny, president of the UN Harbor chapter, will give the welcome.

Van Guelder Waring, master of ceremonies, will read President Kennedy's proclamation for United Nations Day.

American Field Service chairmen and foreign exchange students will be introduced. They are Mrs. Edward Horkey, Palos Verdes chairman and students Laura De Morales, Brazil; Peter Binnenkatie, Germany; Marco Morcelli, Italy; Satoschi Hinata, Japan.

Mrs. Mary Peemoeller of Wilmington will introduce Robert Hens of Belgium. Mrs. Wendell Miler, Lomita chairman, will present Teenat Taugir, Pakistan and Salvadore Gisbert, Spain. The San Pedro chairman, Mrs. Henry Phillips, will introduce Kerstin Andersen, Sweden, and Martha Burro, Brazil. 1961 United States exchange students who will be present are Edward B. Hill, Pakistan; Virginia Wallace, Norway; Karen Siudmak, Germany, and Richard Rounsavelle, Norway.

Lyle Heck, director of the Los Cancioneros, will direct the group in a number of show tunes and Negro spirituals.

Noted Speakers

Mrs. Joyce Jacobowsky, president of the Southern California American Assn. for the United Nations and Dr. Carl Christol, University of Southern California, will speak on "The United Nations . . . Its Future and Ours."

Mrs. Thomas Molyan will direct a children's chorus in singing "Let There Be Peace on Earth."

A group of folk songs will be sung by Los Cancioneros. The Harbor Area Assn. for the United Nations will present a scroll in memory of Dag Hammarskjold to the Swedish Vice Consul Karl Eriksson.

TO WELCOME NOTABLE . . . Democrats Inc., and the Democratic Women's Society will join forces at a tea Friday afternoon at the YWCA honoring Alan Cranston, state controller. Talking over final plans are, from left Mrs. David Lyman, tea chairman, Mrs. Albert Isen, Mrs. John Shilder (Rosemary DeCamp) who will appear on the program and Dr. Frank Sullivan of Loyola University who will speak. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

State Controller To Be Honored At Tea Friday

Rosemary DeCamp Shidler is heading up a distinguished reception committee for the informal tea honoring the Honorable Alan Cranston, State Controller of California. This outstanding social affair is to be held tomorrow afternoon, Oct. 27, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 West Carson St.

Assisting Mrs. Shidler on the reception committee are Mrs. Edmond Armstrong, Mrs. Victor Benstead, Mrs. Vincent Thomas, Mrs. Ralph Owens, and Mrs. Albert Isen.

Mr. Cranston will speak briefly about financial responsibilities in state government. Mrs. Shidler and Dr. Frank Sullivan will offer some unusual entertainment, and all of the guests will be afforded an opportunity to meet Mr. Cranston.

A one-hundred-year old silver service which has been used to entertain such historical dignitaries as Secretary of State William Henry Seward and General U. S. Grant, is being loaned for the occasion by Mrs. J. G. Laird.

Chairman of the affair, sponsored by the Torrance Democrats Inc., and the Democratic Women's Society, is Mrs. David K. Lyman, 1305 Teri Ave. A small donation is being asked and tickets may be bought at the door.

Shore-Wood Wedding Is Solemnized on Oct. 21

Approximately 150 friends and relatives gathered at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance at 2 o'clock last Saturday afternoon to witness the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Sandra Kathleen Shore and Chandler E. Wood, Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Strayves, 1601 W. 205th St., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood, 26824 HYTE Rd., Palos Verdes.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of Mr. Le-Roy Shore. She wore a floor length white lace wedding gown. A pearl crown held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

SANDRA SORENSEN . . . To Wed Local Man

Engagement Announced At Party

A Whittier College romance has climaxed with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Sandra Sorensen and David Rhone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhone, 1019 Beech Ave., Torrance.

The engagement came as a surprise announcement at a birthday party given for Miss Sorensen at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sorensen in Santa Ana. The birthday buffet supper was attended by 50 guests including Mr. and Mrs. Rhone.

Campus friends were told of the engagement with the traditional passing of the chocolate to members of the Metaphonian Society of which the bride-elect is a member.

Miss Sorensen, a senior majoring in elementary education, will be graduated from Whittier in June.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Torrance High School and Whittier College is doing post graduate work at Whittier. He is a member of the Lancers.

An August, 1962, wedding has been planned.

Junior Woman's Club Initiates New Members

Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina district, California Federation of Women's Clubs, held its initiation banquet and ceremony last evening at the Kyoto Sukiyaki Restaurant in Gardena. Members, new members, provisionals and mothers of Juniors attended the affair.

A welcome to the mothers was given by Mrs. Richard Gazeley. The response to the welcome was given by Mrs. Gazeley's mother, Mrs. Don Wolf. Mrs. Robert Williams gave the invocation.

Mrs. Jack Dean, club president, conducted the initiation ceremony. Membership pins were given to new members: Mmes. Russell Sorensen, James Morgan and Thomas P. Black. Assisting with the initiation were Mrs. Clayton Lilley, membership chairman; Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom, coordinator, and Mrs. Ronald Forestal, Federation chairman.

Mrs. Merrill Grow was the speaker of the evening. Her topic was "Something for Nothing." During her speech she demonstrated flower arranging and table decorating.

The oriental theme was carried out in table decorations emphasized with Japanese dolls, programs and name tags. Mrs. Robert Vroman, chairman, was assisted by Mmes. Donald French, Richard Dorothy, and William Burchfield.

Corsages for new members were presented by Mrs. Richard Oliver.

Jill Garrison Becomes Bride of B. A. McIntyre

Beautiful Christ Church Episcopal in Redondo Beach was the setting at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 21, for the marriage ceremony which united Miss Jill Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy S. Garrison, 22619 Evalyn Ave., Torrance, and Bruce Alexander McIntyre, Parents

The bride's young sister, Pamela, wearing pink nylon and carrying a basket of pink roses, was the flower girl.

Airman Douglas McIntyre was his brother's best man and ushers were William Ladd and Bradley Beck.

Officiating at the wedding was the Rev. C. Lee Mills, rector of Christ Church, whose altar guild had provided a candlelight setting of gardenias and chrysanthemums.

A reception was held at the Plush Horse Inn. The couple spent a honeymoon at La Jolla Beach club.

Both the bride and her husband will continue their studies; she is a senior at South High School and he is a freshman at El Camino College.
