

Consultant To Address Unit Nov. 14

As a part of the University of California Home Extension Course a meeting is being sponsored by the Home Advisors at the El Segundo Women's Club, 541 Standard St., El Segundo, Tuesday, Nov. 14, from 9:30 a. m. until noon.

The topics of the program are "Know Today's Fabrics" and "The Use of Basic Pattern and How to Accessorize the Costume."

The University of California will be represented by Home advisor Imogene Dean. Also present will be Mrs. Maxine Downing of McCall's. Mrs. Dean will discuss "What's New in Fabrics," "How to Get Satisfaction in Your Clothing Purchases," and "Is It Really Wash and Wear?" Mrs. Downing of McCall's will show the use of the new basic patterns and the new transfer patterns. She will also accessorize the basic costume. All housewives are invited.

Fellowship Tea At YW On Sunday

Mrs. Minnie Solomon, chairman of the Torrance YWCA World Fellowship Committee announced that the World Fellowship Tea to be held at the Torrance YWCA Sunday, Nov. 12, 2 to 4 p. m. will be in honor of three events.

It will mark the beginning of World Fellowship Week sponsored by the World YWCA each year. It will be in honor of the tenth anniversary of the dedication of the Torrance YWCA and it will serve as an introduction of the new director, Mrs. Carol Wood of the Torrance YWCA to the membership of the YWCA and to the community of Torrance.

Miss Sandra Lipsey, student at USC, a former Y-Teen member of the YWCA and one of the first Y-Teen members to participate in a World YWCA Membership Conference will report on the highlights of the last conference held in Jamaica during August of this year.

Mrs. Dennis Beyersdorff, member of the Torrance YWCA Y-Wives group will sing and a group of Y-Teen singers from the Torrette Y-Teen Club will also participate. Members of the YWCA, friends and community leaders have been invited to the tea which will be held in the YWCA building at 2320 W. Carson St.

Here for Holidays

Arriving by plane Saturday evening from Washington, D. C. was Mrs. Madeline A. Young who will remain in Torrance until after the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Leland Dean and family, 820 Felbar Ave.

SC Educator Will Address AAUW Unit

Dr. Norman Topping, president of the University of Southern California, will discuss high education in the United States with members of the Manhattan Beach Branch of the American Association of University Women.

The noted educator will address the general meeting of the group which is open to interested members of the South Bay at 8 p. m. Nov. 13, at the Manhattan Beach Community Church, 303 Peck Ave.

Dr. Topping will be asked to discuss the following questions asked by the Higher Education Study Group of the branch: What does a private university offer that a state university cannot? What do American universities contribute to our international policy? What should be included in a Federal Aid Bill? And, what type of aid, if any, should the federal government give to higher education? Other related questions will be sought from the audience.

Dr. Topping holds a Bachelor of Arts and Doctor of Medicine degrees, and was formerly vice president for Medical Affairs of the University of Pennsylvania. He and his family have been most active in civic and community affairs since his assumption of the USC presidency.

Women holding a degree from a recognized university are urged to join the association. Interested women may contact Mrs. Robert Rupkey, membership chairman, or Mrs. Robert Rector, branch president.

Madrecitas Benefit At La Venta Inn

La Venta Inn, high in the Palos Verdes hills, will provide a scenic background for the Las Madrecitas' November luncheon and card party. The event, to be held on Nov. 14, will feature a player's choice of games. Tables will be arranged for bridge, canasta, gin rummy, and hearts.

The party committee, headed by Mrs. Arthur L. Zygmunt, consists of new members, Mmes. Howard Anderson, James L. Kaplan, and V. H. Moore.

As an auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild, Las Madrecitas will donate all proceeds raised to the Pediatric Ward of the Orthopaedic Hospital in Los Angeles.

To Attend Meet

Mrs. Jack Dean, president of the Torrance Junior Woman's club will attend a "presidents" session at the home of Mrs. Charles Hillinger, Marina District Junior president, on Nov. 15 in Redondo Beach.
