Miss Busch Honored At Pre-Nuptial Courtesies

Miss Gloria Busch, whose wedding to Richard Nanney will take place next Saturday afternoon at 4:30 at the San Pedro Episcopal Church, has been feted at several pre-nuptial parties. Mrs. Kay Wojcik and Mrs. Pat Dimianuk chose a pink and white color scheme for their shower given at the Wojcik home.

Guests presented the honoree with a shower of miscellaneous gifts. Games were played and the hostesses served refreshments carrying out the party colors.

Guests were Meses. Primo Marconi, Mike Kalinok, Marie Nanney, Virginia Lavoto, Arnie Le Clercq, Max Marconi, Steve Ames, Warren Hartung, Ronald Busch, Eugene Wieke, Lawrence Chamberlain, Rudger Busch.

Sending gifts were Meses. Julian Dilla, Joe Benevidos, Mary Hunt; and Misses Thelma Russell, Kay Frazier and Evelyn Sullivan.

Mrs. Eugene Wieke and Miss Marilyn Moss entertained a large number of guests at a personal shower honoring Miss Busch.

Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rudger Busch, parents of the future bride, entertained at a rehearsal dinner at their home, 23861 Ward St.

A buffet supper was served and decorations carried out the bridal theme.

Attending the party with the future bride and her fiance were Messrs. and Meses. Jerry Jones, Jack Castle, Eugene Wieke, Ronald Busch, Primo Marconi; Misses Marilyn Moss, Pam Marconi; Mrs. Virginia Lavoto; Larry Hunt and Ricky Lavoto.

Dr. Wang to Speak Here On Tuesday

"Communism Behind the Bamboo Curtain" will be the topic discussed by Dr. Tom Z. Wang, noted speaker who will appear here under the auspices of the Torrance Altrusa Club.

The lecture will be Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 8 in the Administration Bldg. of El Camino College on Crenshaw between Redondo and Manhattan Blvds.

Appearing as a member of Coast Federal Savings Free Enterprise Speakers Bureau, Dr. Wang has brought home to thousands of individuals the true hard facts of Communism as he experienced them in his native China.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Wang. There is no admission charge.

Cooks Home From Travels

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cook, 2309 Chelsea Rd., Palos Verdes, returned last Friday from an extensive trip. The couple left San Francisco by freighter on July 25 for Yokohama, Japan, where they spent 17 days. They then went to Hong King, Singapore, Penang and on to South Africa.

In South Africa, they visited the Kruger National Reserve where they had the opportunity to make pictures of many animals.

In South Africa they also visited Port Elizabeth and Capetown from where they sailed to Brazil. In Brazil, they left the freighter to visit places of interest there. In Rio de Janeiro, they boarded a jet for the trip home.

Auxiliary to the Torrance Memorial Hospital will honor its past presidents at a luncheon meeting next Tuesday, Nov. 14, at the Fish Shanty in WALTERIA.

Honored will be Meses. John Melville, Gerald Eastham, Eugene Cook, John Beeman, Ralph McNeil, Paul Roettger, William Boswell and H. F. Heinlein.

Mrs. Paul Winn, president, will conduct a business meeting, at which time the 11th annual Valentine ball will be discussed. The ball will be held this year on Feb. 10 in the International Ballroom at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. "Hearts and Flowers" will be the theme with Mrs. Allen Pyeatt heading the decorations committee.
