

Advisors to Chamber Board Gain Approval

The board of directors of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce unanimously approved the following board advisor appointments.

Dr. Rollin R. Smith will serve as board advisor for the civic activities division. The objectives of this program are to develop a "one city attitude" and civic pride by continuing to publicize our city and its resources through brochures and other publications.

Jim Post will serve as board advisor for the community planning division. The objectives of this program are to inform the public of the need for a comprehensive master plan by conducting proper studies to direct the future land use pattern for balanced community growth, promotion for the continued development of the civic center, and support of the airport development program.

GLENN FFEIL will serve as board advisor for the commercial activities division. The objectives of this program are to improve relations between commercial districts. The organization of an intra-city council will bring together retail, commercial, service and financial institutions to promote better relations and overall institutional programs.

Hal Frenz will serve as board advisor for the governmental affairs division. The objectives of this program are to work with governmental officials in legislative and financial matters and strive for the greatest degree of service for each tax dollar.

BILL JAMESON will serve as board advisor for the industrial division. The objectives of this program are to arrange meetings where industrial leaders can meet and become acquainted, discuss common problems, exchange information, and contribute organized efforts to the solutions of community problems. More jobs will be provided through new and expanded industry.

Bill Belding will serve as board advisor for the membership and finance division. The objective of this program is the development of a membership that supports its program of work with ample funds and suitable physical assistance.

Parish Dinner Sunday

Annual parish dinner of the Nativity church of Torrance will be presented in the new auditorium, Engracia and Arlington avenues, Sunday from noon until 6 p.m., Jack Redding, general chairman of the program, announced.

Joe McCormick has been named ticket chairman by Redding, while arrangements for the menu and preparation of the dinner will be under the direction of James Fornelli. The parish dinner will be held in conjunction with the annual "open house" presented at the Nativity school. The Rev. John P. Cremins is pastor of Nativity Catholic Church.

The dinner committee members include Vernon Ewing, Peter O'Brien, Frank Gerta, Edward Winkelbauer, Edward Cutcher, William Fredericks, Norris Carstenson, Joseph Basile, Joe Walker, Charles Williams, Joseph Platt, Fred Voeste, George Witz, Warren Schell, Ted Witovich and William Steele. Desserts will be provided by the Mothers' Club of Nativity School.

Life in a Junior Seminary was described by the Rev. S. Domachowski, S.J., during a meeting of the Holy Name Society held last Sunday following the monthly Society Mass and Holy Communion. Breakfast in the parish auditorium followed church services.

'Y' Groups Sponsoring World Week of Prayer

All families in Torrance have been invited to join in prayer during the week by the Torrance YMCA and YWCA. The two organizations are co-sponsoring the local observance of the 94th annual "World Week of Prayer and World Fellowship" Nov. 12-18.

Both YMCA and YWCA are offering an attractive booklet containing meditations, prayers, and selected Bible readings to be used during the week, and the year to follow.

ALL SELECTIONS in the free publication were gathered by YM and YW youths from around the world. More than 150,000 such booklets are distributed each year from the world headquarters of the two Christian Youth Movements in Geneva, Switzerland.

The purpose of the program is to unite peoples from all nations in prayers of concern and compassion. The theme for 1961 is "Living By the Power of Jesus Christ."

IN TODAY'S world, more power is held in men's hands than at any time in history. The acts of a few can change the course of civilization, for good or evil. But this is not the only power available to men. Above all stands the eternal power of God. It is His power in our lives that gives us strength. This strength we cannot gain without prayer. Prayer is universal; it knows no boundaries of place or peoples. The two Ys of our com-
