Officers Named; Events Planned by Art Group

The regular November meeting of the Torrance Art Group was held at the home of Nate and Sherry Kamins, 17035 Daphne Ave., in Torrance.

During the sketching of live male and female models, the complete Broadway musical score of "Westside Story" was played in stereo. Member artists worked in various art media such as water color, charcoal, pen and ink, casein, etc.

Among those present were special guest artists, past-president Martha Briggs, of Torrance, Mary Dick of Redondo Beach, Aloha Logue of Redondo Beach, Jean Townsend of Torrance, Angel Walker of Torrance, Claire R. Waterman of Torrance, Clay Young of Compton.

Many stimulating new events are being planned, such as a Holiday Party in December, regular monthly workshops with live models; a "This Is My Best" art exhibit sponsored by local merchants, an annual Artists' Ball and the annual Spring Art Show at Benstead Recreation Center in Torrance.

A special planning meeting to honor new members will be held on Friday, Dec. 1, at 8 p.m. at the home of the new Torrance Art Group president, Claire R. Waterman, 3749 W. 177th St. in Torrance.

Other new officers for the coming term are: Martha Briggs, treasurer; Betty Ward TAG News Editor; Sherry Kamins, publicity. Membership is open to all interested artists or student artists working with arts and crafts in Torrance, Gardena and all surrounding areas.

Hospital Auxiliary to Meet at Nativity Hall

Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary will hold a meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 6, at Nativity Parish Auditorium, corner of Engracia and Arlington Avenues, Torrance. Mrs. Frank H. Forester, president, will conduct the meeting.

A potluck luncheon will be given with all the officers and chairmen acting as hostesses. A turkey and the door prizes will be furnished by the Sisters. Mother Lucy, honorary president of the auxiliary, will attend. Members are invited to bring guests. There will be a gift exchange. Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, first vice president, is chairman of the luncheon.

A gift preview will follow the auxiliary meeting. Christmas has arrived early at the Gift Shop of the Little Company of Mary Hospital. The members are asking everyone to Christmas shop at the store, as there are gifts galore for a gala Christmas. The Sisters have made gay Christmas aprons for the gift shop. Members of the Junior Auxiliary have made favors for the fete. The favors are hundreds of little angels with halos, and silvery snow scattered on shocking pink skirts.
