Peace Officers Salute Retiring Jack Donahoe

Fellow officers and Shriners paid tribute this week to Captain Jack Donahoe, who retired March 8 after 38 years of service with the Los Angeles Police Department.

The veteran policeman was guest of honor at a dinner meeting of the Peace Officers Shrine Club, held at the Los Angeles Police Academy.

Captain Donahoe joined the Police Department in 1924, as an emergency officer, and went on the rolls as a regular policeman the following day.

He attained the rank of Captain in 1941. His most noteworthy case: While serving in the Homicide Detail, he was instrumental in the capture and conviction of Mabel Monahan's killers.

"Captain Jack" is a man after his father's heart . . . his father was a chief of police in Livingston, Mont.

Undersheriff Harold C. Marlowe, president of the Peace Officers Shrine Club, presided, while Superior Judge Evelle Younger was master of ceremonies.

Captain Donahoe, first vice president of the club, was presented with a lifetime membership, and the department he served for 38 years gave him a lifetime police badge.

Prominent guests included Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess, Supervisor Ernest E. Debs, chairman of the Board of Supervisors; Los Angeles' Chief of Police William H. Parker, and Chief of Police Thomas J. Cahill of San Francisco.

Burglar Takes Camera, Jewels

A camera, string of pearls and other items were reported stolen Sunday evening from the home of Louis J. Verville, 21306 Marjorie Ave.

Verville told police the family left the home about 6 p.m. and returned about 10:30 to find the items taken from a bedroom. Taken was a cuff link set valued at about $12.50, string of pearls valued at about $100, the camera and a copier for making prints, $200. Also taken were six $20 bills.

Entry was gained to the home by forcing open a locked window next to the front door.

HERE SATURDAY . . . Chucko, the Birthday Clown, will appear at Shoppers Market, Carson Street and Main, at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. He will bring his popular Circus Wagon, and will give away toys, gifts, food samples, balloon animals, and pictures of himself.
