

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

By FRED NEHER

"If we're in debt to the limit... why not handle it like the government?... raise the limit."

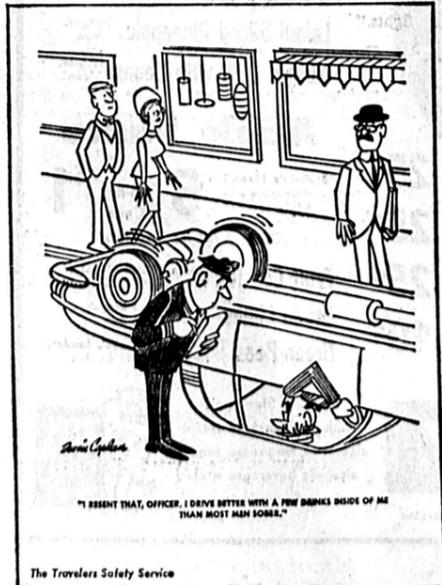

EXCHANGE TEACHER... Leslie L. Edwards, a Londoner temporarily residing in Redondo Beach, receives a scroll as a citation from the El Camino College Faculty Assn. in recognition for his work as an exchange teacher in mathematics during the current college year. Making the presentation is Miss Virginia Pfiffner, retiring president of the faculty group. An alumna of ECC, Miss Pfiffner is a resident of Manhattan Beach.

CONGRATULATED... Winners of Faculty Wives' scholarships of $200 each are El Camino College coeds Linda Ramirez (center) and Frances Nicassio, who are receiving congratulations of an alumna of the college, Mrs. James Gualtieri, president of the Faculty Wives' awards group. Presentations were made Friday at the semiannual awards banquet on campus.
