Lions, Rotary Clubs Slate Athletic Feud

A long standing controversy between the Downtown Torrance Rotary Club as to which has the greatest number of athletes will be settled on Saturday, June 16, when the two meet for a donkey baseball game at 1 p.m. on Mobil Field, 4200 W. 190th St.

Proceeds from ticket sales will be donated to the YMCA building fund. Concession revenues will go to the Torrance central Little League. Chairman Ed Gregory, Buck Atherton and Jack Pellerin announced that the general public is welcome. Price of admission is $1 for adults and children 12 and under 50 cents.

TICKETS may be purchased from any Torrance Rotarian or Lion. They may also be purchased from the Torrance office of the Southern California Gas Co., or Buck Atherton at the Security First National Bank, Cravens and El Prado branch. The YMCA and central Little League are also assisting in ticket sales.

A fun packed afternoon is assured when Lion President Bill King stated that the kids will enjoy trying to distinguish the donkeys from the Rotarians

ROTARIAN President elect, Leonard Ensminger, countered by stating he is confident that his club will win, even though the Lions will have an edge by having their common ancestors (the donkeys) also participating in the event.

The donkeys have denied any similarity or relationship with the members of either club.

Zamperini To Address Local Group

Louis Zamperini, Torrance's famed Olympic track star, will be the speaker at Walteria Baptist Church on Saturday evening. The occasion is Fathers' and Sons' Bar-B-Q at 5:30, with hamburgers, hot dogs, and all the trimmings.

They will enjoy equally the stirring accounts that World War Hero tells of his adventure as a bombardier adrift on a raft at sea for more than 40 days and terrifying experiences as a prisoner of war. Any fathers and sons are welcome. Phone reservations to DA 6-1650.

Baseball is arousing interest each Thursday night as Bill Takamatsu captains the team of hopefuls engaged in a series with other church teams of the area. This week they meet Pioneer on Manchester field.

Family night will be inaugurated each Monday evening. At 6:30 a pot luck dinner will be enjoyed, followed by athletics for the young folks while their elders study with the pastor, Rev. Reid.

On Sunday morning, the Glad Group Choir of tiny folks will give their concluding songs of the season under the direction of Mrs. Jesse Puckett. Pastor James Reid's sermon topic will be of lively morning and evening services.
