Paliani Heads ECC Fall Term Officers

Heading associated student officers at El Camino College for the fall semester will be Joe Paliani, Gardena, newly elected Associated Students president. Paliani will chair the fall student council, directing the activities of ECC's student government program. Assisting the new student executive officer will be Jerry Goddard, Redondo Beach, who was re-elected as vice president. Paliani, an English major, has held a number of public relations and commissioner of athletics on student council, as well as president of the Literary Round Table. A TRANSFER from LA Trade Technical JC, Paliani was active in student government for three semesters at Trade Tech, and twice won the President's Award, as most useful member of student council. Goddard is a pre-dentistry major, and a graduate of Redondo Beach Union High School. Before taking over as AS vice president last semester, he held the post of freshman justice on ECC's student court. Also recently elected were Earlita Fardy, Associated Women Students president, and Jim Dean, Associated Men Students president. Miss Fardy, a life science major, is a Gardena resident and an alumnus of Fort Dodge Senior High School in Iowa.

major and a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School. Newly chosen commissioner of assemblies is Russ Hetherington of Hermosa Beach. He is a pre-law major and an alumnus of Mira Costa High School.

PAUL ENGELMAN, Inglewood, will be ECC's commissioner of athletics for next semester. A math major, he was graduated from Inglewood High, where he was a member of Sentinel's Bay League champion basketball team in 1961. Ingelman was a starting guard on ECC's cage squad this season.

Serving as commissioner of public relations will be bill Diamond of Torrance. A journalism major, he attended Hamilton High Schools and Los Angeles State College before coming to ECC.
