Trio Opens At Pen & Quill Hotel

The Ben Di Tosti Trio has been signed for a six-week engagement at the Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach, report officials of the popular coast highway hotel-restaurant.

The popular instrumental group has just opened and will feature a varied repertory of show tunes, the Twist, jazz, and popular music in the cocktail lounge supper room. The trio will play nightly except Mondays.

Before opening at the Pen & Quill, the group appeared at La Presedio in San Diego, Agua Caliente, and Tail o' the Cock. Di Tosti is featured on piano while vocalist Lyle Ames also plays drums and flute. Bass, guitar and trombone are played by Bob Hirschman. Dancing begins about 10:30 p.m. each evening. There is no minimum or cover charge.

Suspect Arson In Brush Fire

Arson is suspected in a small brush fire which broke out about 7:45 p.m. Sunday on Hawthorne Avenue at the Palos Verdes Estates city line.

The suspect was described to police as being in his early 20s and driving a green pickup truck. The fire, which consumed about a 200- by 200-foot area was near several homes in the area.

Sheriff's deputies said the same vehicle had been seen at fires last week in areas patrolled by the Sheriff's Department. A Torrance fire engine returning from another call came upon the scene. A Palos Verdes fire engine was also there.

MUSIC AND MIRTH... Current attraction at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes are the Wilder Brothers and their swinging Sextet, whose extraordinary musical comedy show is a hit in the "Porpoise Room." The vocal-instrumental group entertain the cocktail-dinner crowd at George M. Foster's seacoast dining spot nightly except Mondays. Weekend reservations are a must in the "Porpoise Room."
