

MRS. ROBERT C. BOYD
... Summer Bride
(Portrait by Seeman)

Frederick-Boyd Nuptials Read at Nativity Church

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clarence Boyd are now at home at 1344 W. Carson St., in Torrance. The couple were married on June 30 in a three o'clock ceremony at the Nativity Catholic Church with the Rev. William Appling officiating.

Mrs. Boyd is the former Donna Mae Frederick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Frederick, 1553 W. 220th St. Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, 1454 W. 215th St., are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Frederick escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a traditional wedding gown of silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a square neckline appliqued with Chantilly lace. The bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. A lace and pearl cap secured the illusion veil. White roses encircling white orchids formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Marlyce Jolly was the matron of honor. Other bridal attendants were Mrs. Eugene Frederick and Miss Janice Boyd.

Lorna Dull, wearing yellow organza, was the flower girl. Leslie T. Allen performed the duties of best man and ushers were Eugene Frederick, Dennis Boyd, Ronald Fitcher and Donald Lavell. Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Vesta Norris registered the guests.

The bride attended Montgomery and Narbonne High schools. Her husband was graduated from Narbonne and served with the United States Navy.

Arts-Crafts Club Meets

Mrs. Hazel Ward and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass entertained the Arts and Crafts club last Friday evening at the Snodgrass home at 1614 Beech Ave.

The hostesses served a dessert, after which a business meeting was held.

The members spent the evening working on their crafts.

Attending were Mes. Maybel Banks, Melvina Beckwith, Fred Bever, Cora Bohrer, Helen Carpenter, Ruth Hardin, Hazel Fossum, and Mae Jones.

Others were Mes. Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Zelma Miller, Ruth Mohler, Addie Parks, Eloda Barkdull and Sybil Moffitt.

Lomita Pair Plan To Wed In February

Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Barnett, 1854 262nd St., Lomita, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lee, to Richard W. Learman.

The engagement was revealed to close friends on Friday at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Dennis F. Fresenius, 1732 254th St., Lomita.

Miss Barnett, a graduate of the 1959 class at Narbonne High school, is employed by Reynolds Metal Co. in Torrance.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Learman, 26347 Fairview, Lomita, is a 1957 graduate of Narbonne. He attended Harbor College and will receive his BS degree in engineering from USC next winter. This summer, he is employed by an oil company in Santa Fe Springs.

A February wedding is being planned.

Hagertys Are Transferred

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Frank Hagerty, who have made their home at 2602 Ridgeland Ave. for the past three years, moved Wednesday to San Bernardino, Cal. Hagerty has spent the past three years at the Air Force missile division in Inglewood and will now be stationed at Norton Air Force Base.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Ellis Myer entertained her bridge club as a farewell compliment to Mrs. Hagerty, a member.

Punch was served during the evening of bridge after which the hostess served dessert and coffee. The high score prize went to Mrs. C. F. McLaughlin of San Pedro and second to Mrs. Charles Fowler. Mrs. Hagerty was presented with a farewell gift from the group.

Mrs. Myer's guests were Mes. Hagerty, Eric Borner, Tony Santaella, Beryle Gutridge, Charles Fowler, J. A. Marshall and C. F. McLaughlin.

Birthday Fete

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mulvihill of Hollywood Riviera recently chose the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach as the setting for a family party to fete her mother, Mrs. Oma Jane Stralem of Redondo Beach, on her birthday anniversary. The 14 guests dined in the "Mark Twain Room."

Dinner Party

Among the recent hosts at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Johnson of Hollywood Riviera, who gave a seafood dinner party in the "Porpoise Room."

Dianas Sponsor Couples Bridge for Tournament

Couples Bridge, sponsored by the Redondo Beach Dianas, Marina District, Junior Federated Women's Club, is played every third Friday of the month at 8 p.m. and held in the various homes of club members.

Past and present Dianas and their husbands play 18 games each evening and contribute to a nightly first and second prize. At the end of each six or seven month period, scores are tallied and a play-off is held to see who the grand prizes winners will be. Half of the money donated at this time is placed in the Diana treasury and used in philanthropies.

Hosting this month are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Clarke, Palos Verdes Peninsula. Those playing at the Clarks' included the James McPhersons of Palos Verdes Estates, the D. J. Gleasons of Hollywood Riviera, and the Patrick Callahans of South Redondo. Dessert and coffee are served each month with a grand buffet planned at tournament time, when all couples get together at one home.

Maria Is Six

Maria Lynn Buzanis of Torrance blew out the six candles on her birthday cake following her first "grown-up" dinner party at the Three Lions Restaurant. Hosts were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Buzanis.
