Elaine Busch Becomes Bride of Steven Welch

Miss Elaine Busch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Busch, 17018 Cranbrook Ave., walked down the aisle of the First Lutheran Church on the arm of her father on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to exchange her marriage promises with Steven Charles Welch. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Welch, 3216 W. 180th St., Torrance.

Her wedding gown, an Alfred Angelo original, was made of Chantilly lace over taffeta. The basque waist had a Sabrina neckline embroidered with sequins. The bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. A pearl tiara held the illusion bridal veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and carnations.

Mrs. Sandra Strech was her sister's honor attendant. She wore pink taffeta and lace and carried pink roses and aqua carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Delores Simpson, Janet Lawson, Donna Saunders, Jill Bruns and Linda Busch. All wore aqua taffeta and lace. Their bouquets were of pink carnations.

Paul Welch was his brother's best man. Ushers were Dwain Saunders, James Zack, Michael Strech, Jerry Hedges and Tom Steineman.

Rev. William J. Roleder conducted the vow exchange and Wayne Allen, at the organ played the nuptial music. The 350 guests were entertained at a reception and buffet dinner at the Torrance Elks lodge. Miss Bonnie Busch was in charge of the guest book. Assisting at the reception were Pat Sullivan, Maiad Zack and Barbara George.

The newlyweds are on a honeymoon up the coast to Seattle where they will attend the World's Fair, returning by way of Yosemite.

The bride was graduated from North High school and is employed by Engineered Magnetics. Her husband is an El Camino college graduate. The new address is 3917 W. 117th St., Hawthorne.

Hoffman-Harrison Vows Read in Church Service

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee Harrison, who were married in a formal ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Lomita at 8 p.m. last Friday are en route to Shawnee, Okla., to make their home. Mrs. Harrison is the former Carole Anne Hoffman, daughter of George I. Hoffman, 15424 S. Western Ave., Harbor City. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Allie Harrison, 2015 W. 259th St., Lomita.

For her wedding, the bride created her own gown of white slipper satin fashioned on empire lines. Details were a lace bodice with a stand-up collar and soft pleated lace fell over the back of the waltz-length skirt. Her tulle veil was secured by a lace and pearl crown. Her bouquet was of small white orchids encircled by stephanotis and roses.

Miss Mary Alice Scott was the bride's only attendant. She wore a waltz-length gown of rose satin and carried deep pink carnations.

Allie H. Harrison was his brother's best man. Ushers were Gary Lambrigen and Ron Hoffman.

The Rev. J. W. Hardin officiated at the marriage and Mrs. W. R. Fluke, organist, furnished the musical background. Mrs. Lynford Scarborough was soloist.

A reception followed in the church patio. Miss Margaret Harbour was in charge of the guest book.

Both the bride and her husband were graduated from Narbonne High school. The new Mrs. Harrison is also a graduate of the Los Angeles County General Hospital School of Nursing.

Mr. Harrison attended Harbor College and will enter the Oklahoma Baptist University where he is majoring in government.

Martins Tour Canada Parks

Dianas Assist Youth Employment

"Put Youth On a Job," is the motto of the South Bay Youth Employment Service. Any teenagers seeking employment as bus boys, stock boys, car washers, delivery boys, yard workers, typists, sales clerks, baby sitters, mother's helpers, or gas station attendants should contact the employment service at the YMCA building at 58 11th St., Hermosa Beach, Monday through Friday, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Both applicants and those who have jobs for these youth may call the Hermosa YWCA to make further arrangements.

Mmes. Eros Widrig and Rita Baglio are employed by the California State Employment Service. Mrs. Widrig handles the South Bay Youth Employment Service while Mrs. Baglio sees that things run smoothly in the entire South Bay, Torrance, Lomita, and Palos Verdes areas. Anticipated soon is the opening of another branch in Gardena to serve the youth of that area.

W. T. Bickers is the official representative of the Kiwanis Club. Miss Jeannie Moody, member of the Redondo Beach Dianas, Junior Federated Women's Club, Marina District, is in charge of publicity for the group.

Those interested in helping youth find worthwhile employment and worthwhile leisure time usage, contact the South Bay Youth Employment Service today.
