Fashion Expert at Broadway

PAT DISERNIA
At Broadway Del Amo

Pre-teen fashions with a "classroom look" will keynote a back-to-school style show at the Broadway Del Amo Saturday. The event is the annual DuPont - American Girl Good Grooming and Fashion Show for sub-teens and Girl Scouts in the Southwest area. Miss Pat DiSernia, fashion director of American Girl Magazine, the official Girl Scout publication, is flying here from New York especially to commentate the show.

Headlining the program will be "educated fashions" in easy to wear, easy-to-care-for fabrics and styles which have been taught to keep pace with today's busy young teens. On the recommended fashion list for smart sub-teens will be man-made fibers which resist soiling and wrinkling and need little or no ironing.

As a special feature, Miss DiSernia will give a charm clinic, with helpful hints on poise, personality and good grooming.

Audience participation and door prizes will add excitement to the festivities which will commence at 10:30 a.m. Admission is free and Girl Scouts are encouraged to come in uniform.

Short Sports Story: On Aug. 27, 1956, outfielder Don Grate of the Minneapolis Millers heaved a baseball 445 ft., 1 in. — the longest toss on record. He retired the following season.
