

GREETES QUEEN . . . Clyde Van Horne, chief of the Federal Aviation Agency Air Traffic Control Center at Los Angeles International Airport, greets Margaret Struhs, who will reign as queen of the Air Traffic Control Assn. National Convention in Las Vegas. The convention, set for Oct. 1-3, will host air traffic controllers from throughout the country. Numerous displays will also be set up in the convention room. Van Horne has lived in Torrance for the past eight years.

Cancer Society Office Giving Aid and Advice

Residents of the Southwest who face the problem of cancer are able to find help in the district office of the American Cancer Society. The office is located at 804 E. Manchester Blvd., in Inglewood.

"The steady growth of the society's local service program has made it increasingly easier to help cancer patients overcome some of the difficulties that arise as a result of their illness," says Mrs. P. B. Marsh, a member of the Order of Eastern Star and a district volunteer worker.

Other services that are available are supplies needed for home care, sick-room equipment, surgical dressings, and others.

THE AMERICAN Cancer Society has been working for the past few years with members and chapters of the Order of Eastern Star, Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Assn. 39, Inglewood Opti-Mrs., the Ladies Circles of the Inglewood First Lutheran Church, the Women's Clubs, and other community organizations.

Anyone desiring information on any of the services offered by the society's office may contact the office at ORchard 2-8148.

Optimist Club Takes Tahitian Movie Voyage

Tahiti via color movies was the feature of last week's regular meeting of the Torrance Optimist Club.

The color film, made and narrated by Michael H. Smith, was filmed during a trip to the island on the "Flying Fish," a yacht owned by Robert Kellogg.

Smith is employed by the Space Age Travel Agency in Torrance. It was his first experience as a movie maker.

Catholic School Resumes Classes

St. Catherine Laboure Parish High School of Religion will resume classes on Monday, Sept. 17. Classes, for every Catholic student in the parish attending public schools, will be held from 7 to 8 p.m. each Monday.

Registration will be held after Masses on Sunday, Sept. 2 and 9. Adults working in the program will be able to attend a special institute at Immaculate Heart College, Sept. 8 and 9. Information is available from Mrs. John Stroble, DA 4-1851.

The best way of saving oneself a lot of trouble in life is to pay very little heed to one's own interests.—Joseph Joubert.

Supervisors Assn. Will Support Proposition 24

The County Supervisors Assn. of California added its name to a long list of state-wide organizations endorsing Proposition 24, the Francis initiative constitutional amendment to combat Communist and subversive activities on the November general election ballot.

Endorsement of the Francis anti-Communist amendment was taken by the board of directors of the State County Supervisors Assn. at its meeting this weekend in Sacramento. Alameda County Supervisor Leland Sweeney made the motion for its endorsement. It was seconded by T. Louis Chess, chairman of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

OTHER leading state-wide organizations which have previously endorsed Proposition 24 to outlaw the Communists and subversives in California include the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Marine Corps League, Military Order of World Wars, Retired Officers Assn. of the United States, Pro America, Young Republicans of California, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the American Council of Christian Churches.

The Louis Francis amendment also has been overwhelmingly endorsed by more than 100 local patriotic, political and veterans organizations, city councils, county boards of supervisors, school boards, chambers of commerce, ministerial associations, taxpayers associations, newspapers, women's and civic organizations.

PROPOSITION 24 was qualified for this year's ballot after 50,000 volunteers obtained a million voters' signatures on petitions.
